THE 1978 TAWASENTHAN

THE BELL OF FREEDOM: Symbol for all to realize they can attain their goals if they persist and pursue, "hang in there" and fight for what is right through the power of knowledge and wisdom.

Hang In There

... because it's a bright, wonderful world in which we live — it's just difficult for us to see it that way at times. As children, we hang onto our toys and playthings and thoughts of bigger and better things . . . of being grown up. As students, we hold onto our friends, books . . . and memories. As graduates, we look back and wonder, "Where has it all gone?" We think of the hours of study, of goofing off, of work at that part-time job, of dates, of grades, of term papers, of all the things we thought we couldn't do but did. Of course, there were times when we gave up . . . but those times were few. When things got tough, we fought all the harder.

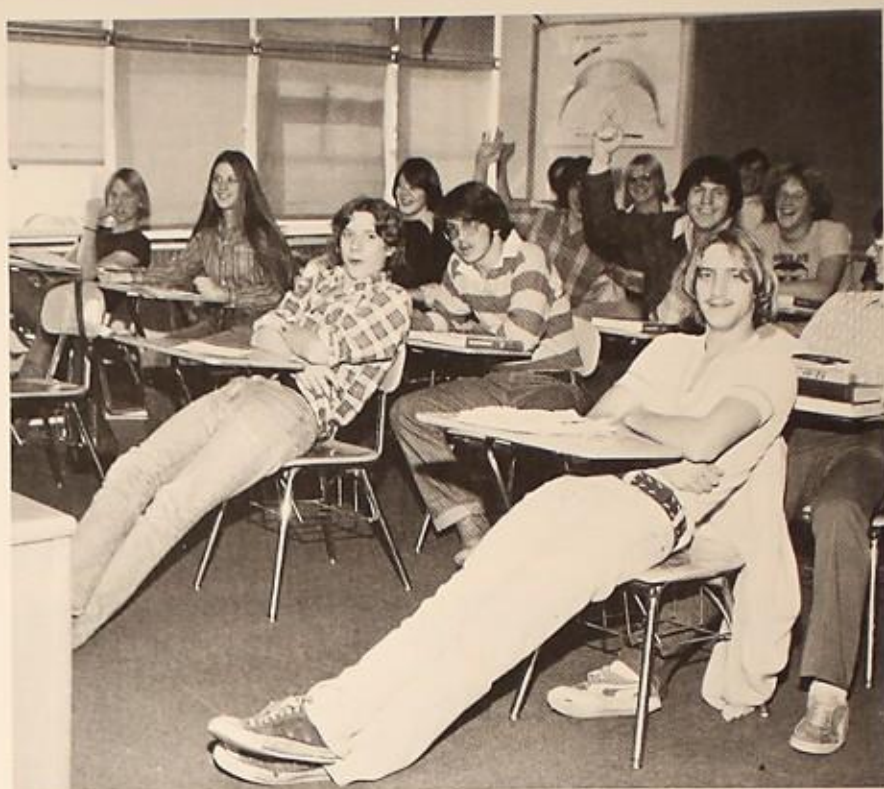

We'll look back on the '70's as years of challenge, and 1978 will be one of our best because we are younger this year than any year to come. But we'll continue to hang in there and do our very best to be what we are capable of being. We'll hang onto those memories, too, of events that, and people who, have made us what we are.

SENIORS & SENIOR ACTIVITIES

Eric Magnussen, Diane Hanrahan, Tucker McGrath, June Crosby, Andy St. John, Dean Gray, Mark Sedlacek, Ron Ruff, Mark Cantwell, Jeff Benson, and Gene Nischo know what its like to sweat it out in the same class together.

Donna Stressel holds Janice Syron's hand to fortell Jan's fate in JA. Linda Sturn, Joe Winnie, Marianne Zwicklbauer, and Brian Sponable await their fortunes.

Left: Sam Dunston poses briefly for last year's cameraman. Sam received the Lewis Coe Memorial Scholarship thi year. Top: John Aretakis "hangs on" tight to a hamburger at the Athletic Picnic.

Deb Frisco seems amused at a Key Club gathering also attended by Henry Montgomery, Ken Malloy, and Joe Mihal — Class of '77 members. Hanging on the wall are several axioms put into practice by the Key Club members including 'Thou shalt respect the rights of others' and 'Thought is action in rehearsal.' Joe was here quite often in '77-'78, hanging around the soccer field and gym.

One of the more unusual senior activities was chasing the basketball (or was it the donkey?) with Bill Young, Jacqui Giroux and Steve Linford vs. Mr. DePersis and Mrs. Cooper in the photo at left.

From 1975 Through 1980 To ??? - Orientation To . . .

We started our first year at GCHS in September 1975 as the most enthusiastic class ever and proved it by selling chocolate candy bars, sponsoring a "Greaser Dance" in the West Gym, and roller skating party at Rollerama, and taking a trip to Riverside Amusement Park.

Our sophomore year was equally successful. Rollerama was the scene of another roller skating party. "The Sting" with Robert Redford and Paul Newman was another fund-raising event; and Riverside was revisited. The Class of 1978 holds the distinction of being the first class to hold a semi-formal during the sophomore year — an exciting event.

During the junior year, the main events were selling candy sticks, planning a class trip which did not materialize, and the Junior Prom which was the highlight of the year — the gym was transformed into a beautiful ballroom for the successful evening.

This year the main events included the Powder Puff Football Game won 31-0 against the juniors, a not-so-successful frisbee sale, the compiling of a senior poll, the Senior-Parent Banquet at the Italian-American Community Center, the Senior Ball at the Empire State Plaza attended by over 400 graduates and dates and Graduation, also at the Plaza, attended by more than 3,000 people.

Graduation brings the end to just one phase in life for the Class of 1978. Much of our high school years were filled with thoughts of "getting out" of school. In years to come we will remember the good times shared with friends and say to ourselves, "High school wasn't all that bad!"

For many, the next step is either college, vocational school, or work. Of course, many of us are scared and worried about our futures. "Have I made the RIGHT decision?" We're asked, "So, what are you going to do with your life?" Each of us wants to reply with something we can be proud of. We've found, though, that it is extremely hard to pinpoint something we can be absolutely sure about. So, we are still searching, growing, and changing.

As seniors, we found ourselves feeling much older than anyone else in the high school. As graduates, we're only just beginning our lives. Graduating is such a small step. We're going to "Hang In There", though, because we're going to make it in this world.

Mark Schaible was difficult to photograph with the other officers — but with the aid of a cooperating donkey, we got him!

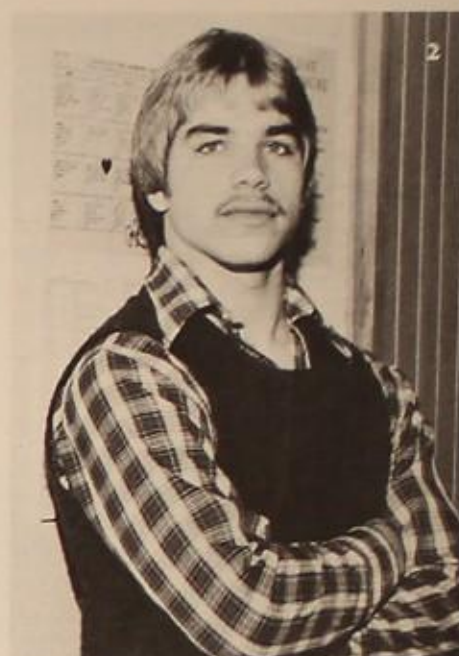

Class Officers: Jean Hennes, Kathy Donnellan, Beth Diehm; Top. Pam Williams, Lori Hilton; Seated. Stephanie Allen; Standing.

This year the koala was identified as one of the animals many students would like to have had as a pet — and a number of girls have stuffed toys or pieces of jewelry fashioned after this furry, teddy-bear type, Australian inhabitant. As he (or she) is noted for the trait of tightly clinging to the parent when young, or to a tree at any age, the “hanging on” or “hanging in there” fit our theme. We asked Sheila Hatfield to draw him for us to include in the '78 TAWASENTHAN.

Class Of 1978 - Junior Prom - Precious & Few . . .

Jill Monaghan with Mark Moran, Geoff Morse and date.

Paige Killoran and Mike Munroe reigned over "Precious and Few", the Junior Prom of 1977. The event though staged in the gym was unique in that the gym had been completely transformed, with few of the tell-tale signs. The dance was heavily attended — the greatest number to attend a Prom at the school — and possibly even the last to be held in the school.

Below: Bill Embler, Bill McCartan, Steve Bonawitz and his date relax, waiting for the band to continue the evening of music. Below right: The hall lobby is miraculously covered, giving the air of a hotel lobby with the crowd arriving for a very special event.

Kathy Schreiner, Jim Roberts, Paul Richards, Martha Knapp, Greg Hilt, and Sharon Salmon engage in a lively discussion of the Prom.

Class Of 1977 - Senior Ball - We've Only Just Begun

Rick Taylor points to the intricate seating chart where he finds his seating location at Michael's for the Ball.

Steve Morrisson, Deb Waggener, Brian Dechene, and Melinda Hedges wait for the main course.

Jean Hennes, Kath Donnellan, Pete Cure, Bob Cullen, and Mary Robinson have mixed emotions about being photographed.

Eve Aretakis, performing final duties as the Class President, enjoys a joke with Mrs. Stephanie Cooper, Adviser.

Graduation - Athletic Field

Hope Sternberg, Valedictorian

Frank Drahos delivers the Salutatory to more than 500 seniors on the Athletic Field.

Rolly Merrill outdoes his streaking act by disrobing, to the amusement of Rick Webster and surprise of Mrs. Cooper.

Postponement prevented disaster — but the rain still threatened the thousands on hand for graduation on the Athletic Field. The hope of the future is in the hands of those graduating in '77, as admonished by Mr. Ciaccio, Dr. Looby Hope, and Frank. They also looked to the past which molded them.

Mrs. Stephanie Cooper called the roll as members of the class she advised received their diplomas from Mr. Knauss. At left Lea Rothstein waits for Mike Ryan.

The rain held — long enough for the '77 graduates to sing the Alma Mater and rush on to whatever the future holds.

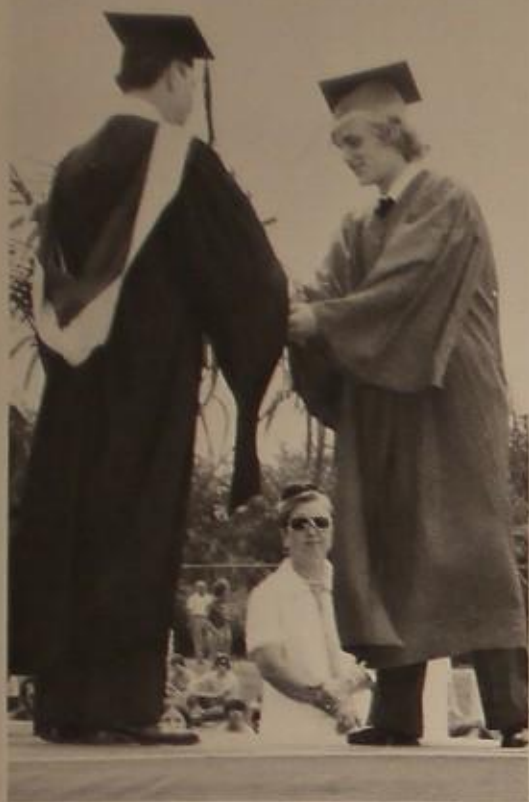

Exchange Students - Rotary And AFS - 1977-1978 . . .

PERRY RENSHAW

Perry graduated in August, 1977, with highest honors. He played freshman soccer, won an athletic letter in swimming, and participated in the Chorus, Debate Club, Honor Society, and the Spain Study Trip. He was awarded the Harvard Book Club Award for an outstanding junior, a National Merit Scholarship Letter of Commendation, the Anna Livingston Memorial Latin Prize, a National Spanish Examination (Level 4) Award and is listed in Who's Who Among American High School Students.

He has been a Rotary Foreign Exchange Student in Miyazaki, Japan. He writes, "I have been in Japan about three months and am enjoying it immensely . . . I have changed in some ways and am more willing to try things that I would never have done in America . . . Some observations on Japan: Our sign language and their sign language are totally different; the wealth of family cannot be determined by looking at the outside of their house; Japanese baths are great; chopsticks are easy to use; students go to school all day and study all night; and Japanese tests bear little or no relationship to what is being taught in class."

ILKA OBERST

Ilka's first experience in Brazil was a full set of fingerprints of both hands twice and three days of standing in line at the police station in order to be registered. Her comments read: "Brazil is definitely an enchanting place, as are the people — but sometimes their total lack of organization drives me crazy."

Her family of five brothers accepted her like one of their own, and she felt like part of the family immediately. She writes that school is not being taken too seriously, that even the teachers skip school.

Being the only "natural blond" in the whole school certainly makes her a celebrity. She had a hard time getting used to "everyone wanting to meet me and to the boys' holding open the door" but thought she could get used to it easily.

A 30-day trip throughout Brazil planned by Rotary will be one of the highlights of her stay.

The Sea Point of Capetown, where I spent my whole year, is where the Atlantic and Indian Oceans meet. I went sailing with one host family and right below the boat were sharks galore.

I lived with three Jewish families and enjoyed a new look at a different religion. I spent a lot of time walking the beach front as two of my host families lived in a high-rise ("block of flats") across the street from the ocean.

I attended an all-girl school, wore a uniform with my hair tied back and no makeup. I found school quite different with a higher standard of learning.

I was fortunate enough to stay in Johannesburg for ten days on my way home. I also spent a super ten days in London with another Rotary family.

All I can say is that I had a 'lekker' stay in South Africa and I will never forget it as long as I live

Baie Dankie

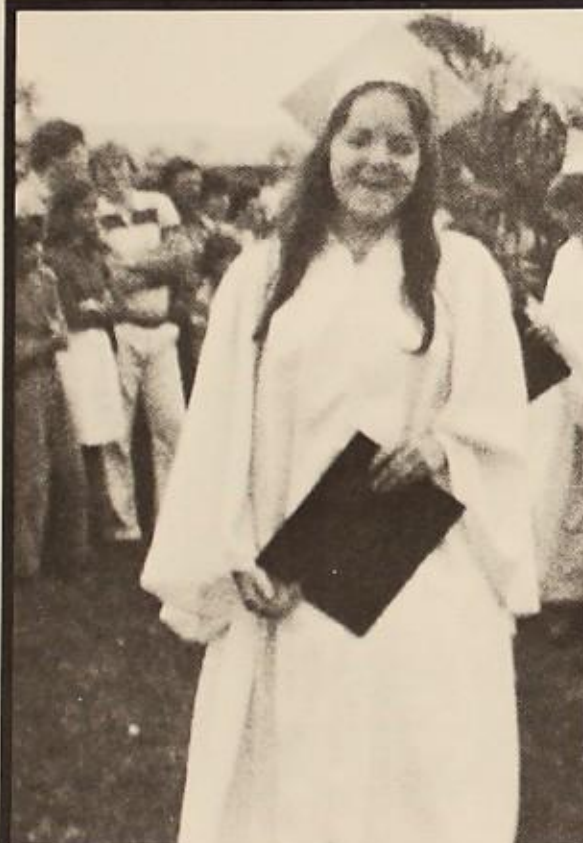

Margie received a distinction when she became the 30th Albany Tulip Queen in May, escorted by Richard Norman of Johannesburg, a Rotary Exchange student staying in Middleburgh. Another trip awaits her — to Aruba — and a full year of activity.

MARJORIE TETRAULT

The year I spent in Capetown, South Africa, as a Rotary Exchange Student was just too divine for words. I will never forget it because of friendships that will last my lifetime.

Peta Friedman, pictured with me, was a member of one of my host families. Everyone in Guilderland surely remembers her year's stay here as a Rotary Exchange student in 1975.

I spent a great deal of time traveling and sight seeing. Imagine a girl from Guilderland sleeping in a tent on a safari with wild animals only a few years away or riding in a combie through the jungles of Kruger National Park, watching elephants, lions, and giraffes in their natural habitat.

BARBARA RODGERS

Barbara Rodgers gleefully grabbed her diploma in June 1977 and two weeks later headed for Denmark — a strange country and a strange language. Barbara is within telephone communication of Pia Jensen, a Rotary Exchange student from Aarhus, Denmark, who spent the 1976-77 school year at Guilderland.

Barbara is staying with two families, has made many friends, loves her school and her families, and says she spends much time defending America against many misconceptions that other students from middle eastern and other European countries have of us. She says she will look back on this year as the best in her life.

... Enabling International And Domestic Exchanges ...

I am Laura Espinoza Morales from Oaxaca, Mexico, about 8 hours from Mexico City or 5 hours from Acapulco. I came to the US through the American Field Service, arriving in Guilderland on August 20, 1977, and returning to Mexico in July.

I like GCHS very much. This is different from my high school in Mexico. I am taking Physiology, English, Italian, Photography, Anthropology, Social Studies, Gym, and Advanced Foods. I like being active and was on the Tennis and Track Teams and in the cast of "South Pacific."

This year in the US has been a wonderful experience for me. I'll never forget Guilderland and all the nice people I met.

Zulfi Jafri came to this country and high school 4 years ago. As a native of Pakistan, he had to adjust to the different language and culture of our country. Although not affiliated with any specific exchange organization, he has lived for periods of time with several host families. His interests range from international politics to basketball. He has other brothers who have attended Guilderland. His father is the mayor of a suburb of Karachi, Pakistan's largest city.

NORIKO TSUHARA

The time passed very fast for me this year. I feel like I just came here, but I have to leave soon. The American life that I have led will be just a memory, but I will never forget all of my experiences and the time I had here.

To my teachers who always helped me in the class, all of you were very nice to me. Thank you very much . . . I will never forget your kindness and concern.

ハッ!!ニッ!ー!!

To my friends who always helped me to learn English, and always said to me, "Hi, Nikki!" with a smile, and gave me your kindness and love . . . Thank you very much, my friends! I will never forget you.

To my host families who always gave me a lot of love and a wonderful American life, made me relax . . . I'm very happy to have become one of your family, just like your real daughter or sister. I love all of you. I hope "Nikki" will stay in your mind forever as Nikki Tetrault, Nickie Parr, Nikki Day. I will come back here to see you some day.

I'm going to introduce your country to Japanese people just like I introduced my country to you. Many, many things in your country are very different from my country's, so when I just came here, I sometimes had a hard time; and now, I know how nice you are and how much I like your country.

Everything about my stay here has made it a good experience for me. The memories I made with you will never leave me, and now I just want to say "Good-bye doesn't mean forever."

Nikki

Nikki has been with us for one year on the Rotary Exchange Program. She lived with three different families, whereas students on the AFS program normally have only one host family.

Nikki is pictured at the left in her native country's costume and on a few occasions dressed in this manner to help us understand her culture a little better.

Kati Rodin was a participant in the one-half year Domestic Program of AFS. She came to us in September from Toutle, Washington, and stayed with the Herbert Schaible family until January.

... Building Lifetime Relationships For Thousands

RACHEL OAKLEY

As an AFS student, I spent my summer in the German port city of Hamburg with my host family, the Starkes. Living in another country and experiencing a different culture is a fantastic experience. You must adapt yourself to a new lifestyle and customs. Not only do you learn about your adopted country, but about yourself and your own, too.

Everywhere I went I met new people and made new friends. It's amazing to realize that I know people who live thousands of miles away, and yet I can speak to them on the phone. Because of my stay in Germany with AFS, the world seems a bit smaller and closer.

IRMA STULTIENS

Hi, I'm from the Netherlands. I came to the US in August, 1977, and leave in June. I graduated from high school in Holland, so this year was "just for fun."

I've been to a few other schools in this area, and I think Guilderland is one of the nicest ... you'll never admit that I had a hard time saying it at the beginning too; but when I got to know the language, the building, and, most of all, the people, it was so much nicer.

I learned a lot here, by looking and talking. I most enjoyed the track and ski teams. It didn't do my shins any good, but I got to know more really nice people.

I can describe my AFS experience best in these words learned on the star team: "I LOVE it!" I want you to know only one more thing — when I go back to Holland, I won't wear wooden shoes and I won't live in a windmill.

JOHN CZARNETZKY

I had the opportunity to go as an exchange student to Chile last summer. As I look back, my mind is colored with the memories of a growing nation and a loving people.

Chile is developing and this spirit can be felt throughout the country. I attended school and was excited, not only by the chance to experience the culture, but by the mere spirit of the youth. I lived with a young couple, part of the growing Chilean middle class; they had one child and many relatives who all made me feel at home.

There are many things that a person learns, not only about a country, but about himself. I found Chile to be fascinating and quite different from the US. But the biggest thing that I learned was no matter where you travel, people all aspire to success, peace, and friendship. In those three things, we are all the same.

I would not trade my family here or my country for anything — but I would not trade last summer either!

Ursula Dietrich was in the States on Rotary Exchange and lived for a time with the William Chamberlain family.

REFLECTIONS

... And I knew I would write this some day ...
These halls and walls I've hated
so many times —
I've felt like a condemned prisoner
— But I've watched myself grow up in the reflection of the girl's room mirror.

And I was never your overjoyed student, either.
I didn't go to all the football games,
and I hated selling candy bars
— But I know I'll miss it SOME day.

I'll miss figuring how to fake it through math without my homework,
Or wearing my jock socks over the real ones
as an effort to fool the gym teacher,
Or trying to be nonchalant while wandering through the halls without a pass.
— Little things that seemed important at the time,
funny later
— and absurd in the long run.

I guess that's what growing up is all about — gaining perspective.
But God knows I can't gain it in here.
I've got to leave this place and start over again.
Start learning what's acceptable,
And how to cope with the problems of each day
— Except they'll be for real this time.

And I'm not ashamed to admit
I'm afraid.
Petrified.
But one thing I have learned is that we all feel pretty much the same inside
— Often more than we realize.

So, believe it or not,
I think I'll probably make it.
Maybe I can't look back and say life was always carefree and joyous for me.
But I can look back and say
I grew.
Didn't you?

Kathy Donnellan modeled an interesting gown with a scarf trim as Joe Bosco, looking rather pleased, sported a very smart tux.

Top: Steph Allen, Lori Hilton, Beth Diehm, Kath Donnellan, Carol Redmond, Jean Hennes, Pam Williams; a quick summary of party attire

John Aretakis and Robin Welge, moderators kept the fashion show moving. Lori Hilton modeled as Robin described her gown.

Fashions For The '78 Dances

Beth Diehm made a pert appearance in the gown chosen for her. Mark Sedlacek is not outdone in his trim outfit.

This is the first time a fashion show identified the types of garments available to everyone for those special events at the end of the junior or senior year. The couple at the left made it possible for our seniors to see for themselves the quality tuxes and gowns available for rent — reducing the cost of purchasing a one-time item. Some of those modeling, all seniors, included Lori Hilton, William Buchanan, Mark Schaible, Bill McCartan, Carol Redmond, and Dan Ryan, pictured above. Mike Korol took the photos on this page to help in identifying the dress of the '70's in formal attire.

Mel Huls and two friends pause while Michelle Wolfstich, Deb Corcoran, Carrie Victor and their friends are photographed at the gala event at the South Mall.

“Always & Forever”

One couple enters the Convention Hall lobby at the South Mall in anticipation of the evening ahead. The event on June 3 was an evening to remember “Always & Forever.”

The Rockettes they aren't but they entertained the more than 200 couples at the Senior Ball: Jim Terry, Matt Schreiner, Dennis Ruddy, Paul Diefendorf, Brian Moxey.

Craig Carnevale and members of his party look on while Mike Korol and Sharon Klimkewicz pose for the photographer. Dodie Sengenberger seems to be concerned that her flash may not work and clues her date in on this.

The people without whom the evening would not have been a memory: Beth Diehm, Lori Hilton, Pam Williams, Mark Schaible, Steph Allen, Jean Hennes, Kath Donnellan, Sharon Klimkewicz, and Robert Drake, class advisor.

There seems to be a little confusion at the reservations desk as Michelle Tymchyn and Steve Schinnerer check out their table locations with Sharon Esler, Patti Mastriani, Tina Viscio, and Jackie Fouhy, who points the way.

Deb Clough and her date, Louise LeMay and Karen Heath, Lisa Reight and her date, Kathy McKee and her date take time out to show off their finery.

1 The chaperones and guests enjoy the roast beef dinner and some lively conversation.

2 Jean Rosencrans and her date take a moment to rest in the lobby before returning to the dance floor.

3 Kevin Dickson, Denise DuBois, Sue Shippey and her date, and Melinda Hages watch Deb Sperry deAllema do a "rain dance"?!

The rain outside didn't dampen the spirits of those within. Even the storm disappeared to help make the evening something to remember "Always & Forever".

- 1 Paul Davis is greeted by Mr. Ciaccio for the "turning of the tassel" to signify entering the world of the graduate.
- 2 Kathy Fox seems to be muttering, "bet you thought I wouldn't make it."
- 3 Lori Gee seems anxious to start on the events of the future.
- 4 Mike Walters sums it all up with his smile, "I'm glad to be here. It has been worth the effort."
- 5 The crowd awaits as the graduates' names are called by class advisor, Robert Drake.

The anticipation of the evening of June 22 was heightened by rehearsal earlier that day. The Convention Hall, also the scene of the Ball, had definitely changed — there were over 2,000 people in attendance that night. Speeches by Mr. Alland, Mr. Ciaccio, Paul Lee, and Gary Hoyle will be long be remembered as assurances of the unexpected in the future. The courage of one classmate, Vic Robinson, was acknowledged as all the graduates gave him a standing ovation, as they had for Paul Lee. The conferring of diplomas, carried out by President of the Board Peter Knauss and Robert Drake, followed the awarding of the prizes. The climax of the evening was the Alma Mater sung in unison by the graduates as they begin their new life — with the blessings of their families, their teachers, the administrators, and the Board and community.

Graduation 1978

UNDERCLASSMEN . . .

Maurice Jones looks a little out of place holding a pocketbook and Pete Lysogorsky and Marcie Johnson seem to be getting a kick out of it all. Below, a class of sophomore English students try to ignore the photographer. Denise Kline is too engrossed in her work to look up.

Kathy Hamm hangs onto her crutches, as did many other students with injuries this year, while Sharon Hamm, right, and Linda Zahnleuter lend words of encouragement. It won't be long, Kathy.

Sandy Mallory and Sharon Ableman can't wait to get to the bus. It's the end of the day, the last period for these girls, and Sharon seems ready to clap for joy — though she could smile a little!

At left, the noon crowd invades the cafeteria for lunch. Even at 9 am, the cafeteria is busy, as Doris Cowley and Lori Crawford will attest. (If you'll look closely, you can see where Doris spends a great deal of time.)

A favorite pastime of Wanda Gearhardt and Crystal Hayden is talking on the telephone — a favorite spot of many of the underclassmen. Above, Eric Jerabeck, recovered from last year's injury, leads a group of underclassmen to the East Building. Whether indoors or out, in class or not, at home or at school, the underclassmen are always busy.

Juniors - Class Of 1979 - One More Year To Go . . .

Posters, M&M's, and candy bars started the Class of 1979 on the way to the final event of their high school years — Graduation. The advisors and officers have worked hard and have accomplished a great deal for the benefit of this year's juniors.

The big events of the year have been the Powder Puff Football game against the seniors and the Junior Prom. As happened with events planned by several organizations, some of the activities had to be postponed or cancelled, the class trip, for example. However, the class has had successful trips for two years so another is planned for the senior year.

An evening at the movies was started in the fall, but without enough moviegoers to make the evenings pay, it was discontinued. The Class sponsored "An Evening For Julian" (Julian Porter was injured in an accident on Willow Street this year), a success socially and financially. Other events included collecting for the Christmas Fund, Scholarship Drive, and Cerebral Palsy.

'Hang in there', juniors, only one more year to go!

1 The officers — Ellen Hornbach, Clare Gaul, and Geri Broom, top; and Chris Donohue and Jackie Fouhy, bottom — have spent many hours working with their advisors and the class members to provide events requested by the Class of 1979.

2 Mr. Keith Beebe has been working with the Class since mid-freshman year when Mrs. Bethmann went on leave.

3 Mrs. Kathy Torino has been Class Advisor since the Class of 1979 entered Guilderland in September 1975. The activities and hours for both advisors have been numerous, but their energy seems unflagging. Both are looking forward to the best year of all — though also the busiest and most demanding.

4 and 5 From Powder Puff Football to Junior Prom — can Graduation 1979 be far behind?!

Sophomores - Class Of 1980 - Two More Years To Go . . .

No balloons will burst for the Class of 1980 since a great deal of planning will go into the next two years at GCHS. The Class has already been active in trips, fund raising, and activities, with a number of hours put into making them all successful.

Besides the Sophomore Semi-formal in April, the Class sponsored a Winter Sale with all sorts of winter attire and implements on sale — a percentage going to the Class for funding activities. The Class decorated the West Lobby at Christmas and had a pizza party while doing it. They supported the Christmas Drive, collecting money and canned foods for the event.

As organized as the Class is, smooth sailing is ahead.

Brian Remmert, Monica DeGonzague, Sonjia Jones (junior) and her date relax at the table while other couples take advantage of the good music on the dance floor during the Semi-formal.

TOP: Terry Barney, Tracy Van Patten, Doris Cowley, Sharon Esler and (absent) Nancy Esmay lead the Class of 1980.

Judi Arnold, Karyn Suhr, and Tanya Spadaro are only a few of the students who spend time in the West Lobby waiting for classes to start. Remember the scrambling between mods . . . six minutes seemed like six seconds!

Left: Bill Boudreau, Karen Pauley, Doris Cowley, Linda Geritz, and Jimmy Gula look relaxed after several weeks of school. Just 2 years and 30 weeks to go, you guys!

Right: Ivan Brainard looks at least a little more alert than his other classmates. Maybe the morning air hasn't awakened them yet for their shop class. Hang in there guys; you're half way there. The year will soon be over and school will be out for the summer. Then you can catch up on all that lost sleep.

Bottom: The hallway is filled again — on to the next class!

Gary Booker, Ron Czarnetzky (junior), and John Sweeney are hung up on "Cnymhuk" as Joe Biscotti assumes a normal pose at the console. All in a day's work.

Class Of 1981 . . . Freshman Class . . . Three More To Go and the gym . . . and beyond. The freshmen have climbed the first rung of the ladder toward 1981. Above are Chriss Rafferty, Chris Nolan, Lee Van Patten, Kathy Chase, and Kim Haines in the circle cheer for the basketball team one afternoon.

The year started off slowly . . . with no officers, no advisor, and no planned activities. Then Miss Marilyn Blum (below) volunteered to help get them started. The officers (Denice Opatkiewicz, Jeff Perlee, Chriss Rafferty, Colleen Reilly, Lee Van Patten, Linda Zahnleuter) planned a trip and a dance — both very successful.

From Art Class (Marcy and Joe) through . . . many hallways

The freshmen have a great deal to choose from in the academics, clubs, activities, and sports over the remaining years of their stay at Guilderland. Art is one of the many choices they can make — and many do choose this manner of expression. Hang in there, freshmen; only three more years to go!

Now that the big event is over, it's back to spending afternoons in the math room making up all the work missed while watching the Series!

FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION AND STAFF

At Work . . .

The entire school organization has to work together to make the large plant, known as the high school, operate smoothly. The following pages depict the majority of the people who work to make the school a better place for the educational process — both on the scene and behind, out of view of the student body.

It might be said that all of these people really “hang in there” to provide the students the required as well as the peripheral services; some are taken for granted.

At School . . .

The staff are engaged in varied activities which promote the learning process in and out of the classroom. Some are involved in workshops or classes to expand their own knowledge; some, chaperoning events for students; some, coaching or advising groups; all, in activities to help the students succeed.

At Play . . .

All Working Together . . .

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION and District Administration work closely together — meeting more than the twice monthly scheduled for meetings. These are dedicated individuals, not paid for their service to the school and community, who are constantly involved in committee work to ensure the students of Guilderland the best for the money invested in their educations.

Since all of them are parents, they have an understanding of the needs, immediate and future, of children. A pride in good education is noted in the programs which the Board has underwritten for the schools.

District-wide And Within The High School, As Well . . .

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS Peter W. Alland, assuming the role since November 1977.

PERSONNEL ADMINISTRATOR Arnold Rothstein, formerly High School Dean of Students, and Hal McCarthy, Business Administrator, discuss some of the items of business for the Board agenda.

To Provide Worthwhile Experiences For The Students
As They "Hang In There", From Kindergarten Through Graduation!

Operational Staff

Sally Dague, Typist, using indispensable Xerox

Thelma Crounse, Clerk

Helen Marion, Secretary to Superintendent

Dolores Moore, Secretary

Joy Pierle, Accounts

June Smith, Secretary, Personnel

Susan Spadaro, Accounts

District Office

And High School . . .

Jan Davis keeps the Extracurricular Accounts, orders, and typing up to date.

Norma Holt receives calls and types reports, etc., in the main office.

Fran Kamp is Mr. Ciaccio's secretary, keeping the office efficient.

Rhona Twombly, secretary to Mr. Ryan, handles the attendance for the school.

Meda Vrooman, Dean Cooper's secretary, meets every student with a Dean's pass.

Eleanor Zahnleuter, East Office, does typing for the Department Chairpersons.

Keep The School Running Smoothly By Helping

ADMINISTRATION . . .

DEAN OF STUDENTS John Cooper has a heavy schedule most days because of the need for student discipline. He also works with the Student Government on ways to improve the school setting for the students.

Principal's Message . . .

Someday, when you feel that everyone is against you, that nothing you do is right, when everything seems to be coming up wooden nickels and you're convinced you're a dud, when you can't seem to win for losing, and I guarantee there will be days like this; remember, YOU are not alone!

Consider the fact that the 46 chromosomes you inherited from your parents are the only such combination in the whole wide world of 4 billion people. Because of this you are unique, you are a very special person — one of a kind — and because of this, you and you alone can do something that no one else can do in quite the same way.

CJC
PRINCIPAL Charles J. Ciaccio

ADMINISTRATOR FOR PUPIL PERSONNEL SERVICES John F. Ryan uses his guidance training and background, working with other students and his own son, Dan.

ADMINISTRATOR FOR PROGRAMS Joseph Purcell, above, was on a partial sabbatical leave, spending only 2-3 days of every 5 here at the High School. Andrew Garruccio, left, took over some of his duties for the year, in addition to working part time at the District Office. Mr. Garruccio spent a great deal of his time working with the Special Education programs at Guilderland while Dr. Purcell concentrated on work with the Areas of Study developmental process.

And FACULTY And STAFF

SCHOOL NURSE/TEACHER Maida Gallagher

The HEALTH OFFICE provides many services, from testing eyes and ears to providing physicals for athletes, as well as the usually required services of checking students for illness when they report to the office, or contacting the parents when the students have a physical emergency.

Sometimes the office is so busy that students are lined up into the hall; other times a vacant bed can be found for an ailing student to rest his/her aching head, stomach, or whatever.

In any case, students are normally greeted with a smile and understanding for the need to report to the office, even if the advice is sometimes like a bitter pill.

HEALTH SERVICES

SCHOOL NURSE Mary Janerich

PSYCHOLOGIST Lester Haas works throughout the District and is unable to spend full time at the High School.

The SCHOOL PSYCHOLOGIST is able to provide only some of the students the necessary exposure to psychological testing and services. He is available as much as possible, especially when consultation is necessary. He does some classroom instruction wherever possible and has taught Psychology in the past here at the high school.

VOLUNTEER SERVICES

COORDINATOR OF VOLUNTEER ACTIVITIES Virginia (Ginger) Burke provides activities for adult and student volunteers.

The VOLUNTEER SERVICES program matches students and adults with special skills which they may have and are willing to share on a volunteer basis at the High School. Mrs. Burke has worked with more than 20 different individuals who act as typists, aides, clerks, etc., in the Guidance Center, Reading Center, and other locations around the school. This program facilitates a number of events which otherwise may not have occurred.

DRIVER ED . . . ART . . .

DRIVER ED is a course which keeps Mr. Ryan in gear and on the road a great deal. Students learn both automatic and manual shift driving through the aid of the simulator. Statements by students indicate they prefer the "real thing" to driving "in a movie situation" but in order to provide the experience to a large number, it is done this way.

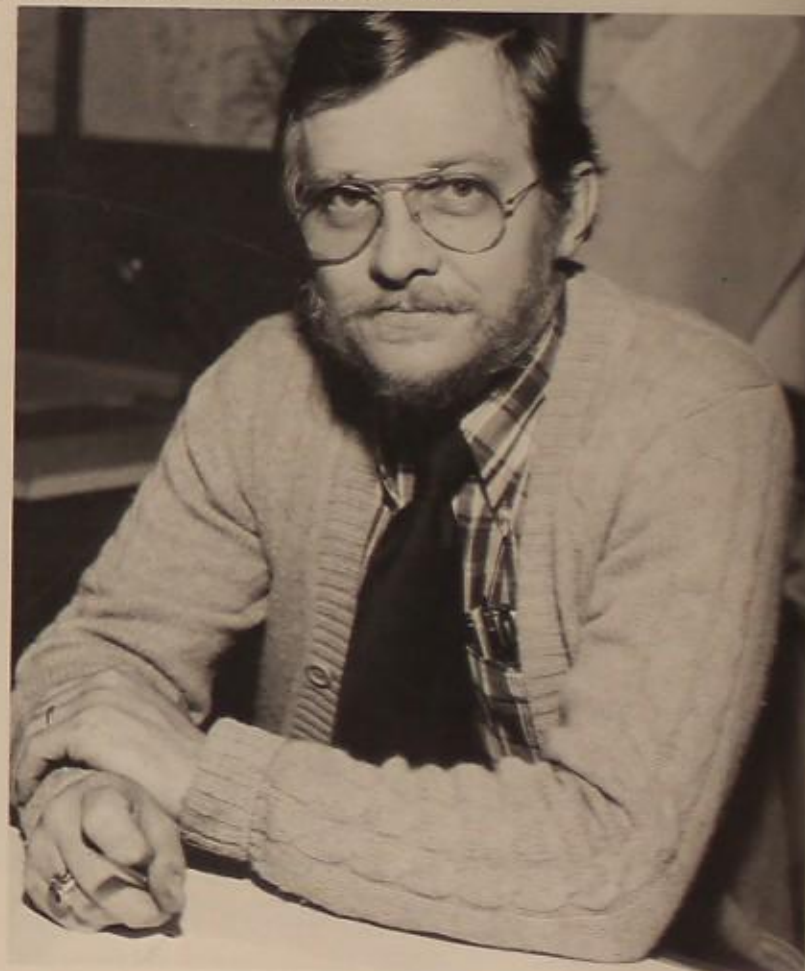

ART DEPARTMENT CHAIRPERSON William Jewell spends a great deal of time in the classroom. ART provides the students a means for expressing themselves. A number of the students have exhibited in State displays, a few getting scholarships and/or prizes for their exhibits. Ceramics, drawing, graphics, drafting, you name it; students can find themselves in nearly all types of expression — and many do. This is a popular elective, as well as major, area.

Music and Art provide for student expression and creative use of free time.

Paul Krauss teaches Ceramics, Creative Crafts, and Drawing and Painting to a rather large number of students. He also allows students to use his room while he is there for projects which may or may not be class related. The art rooms are a favorite hang-out for students.

Ted Vickery teaches Mechanical Drawing and Drafting Graphics. From December through March he was quite active setting the stage for the Guilderland Players' "South Pacific." Mechanical Drawing is one of the more popular courses in this Department, encouraging students from outside the Department to learn a useful skill.

MUSIC

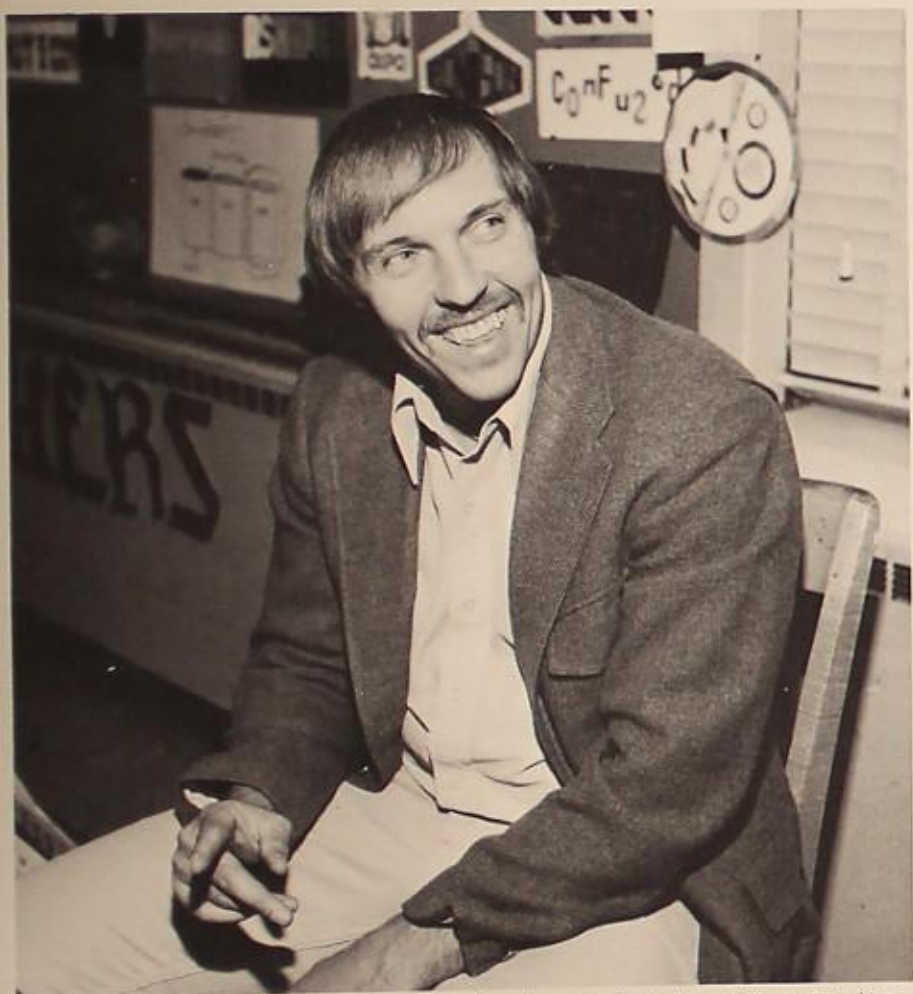

Roger Kingsland takes a moment from the busy band schedule.

Stringed instruments are Phyllis Lyngard's specialty at the elementary and high schools.

Don Webster directs the Concert Band, Wind Ensemble and "South Pacific" Orchestra this year.

Artie Waugh teaches Studio in Art and Advertising Design. In line with his active interest in students in the classroom, his other responsibilities include coaching LaCrosse and assisting in Varsity Football.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT CHAIRPERSON Richard Wagner teaches Music Theory and leads the Choir and Chorus. Both these organizations and the instrumental groups perform several concerts during the year, probably the most popular are the Winter and Spring Concerts. An accomplished pianist himself, Mr. Wagner provides an example to his students regarding practice and its worth in music as well as other areas.

MUSIC is one segment of school life which enables the students to acquire a skill which can be used for both employment and pleasure. The emphasis by the staff is on practice and in addition to taking the particular class, individual lessons are assigned.

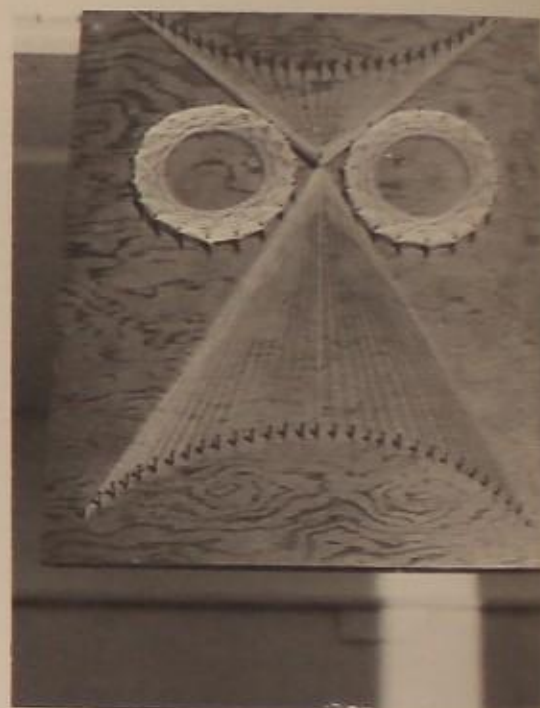

Student participation and progress are noted . . .

Mark Welge sketches the most often used object, owl.

ARTWORK of all types is on display during the year at the Board Office and other public places, including the area banks. Some students, Ward Hotaling for one, are able to sell their pieces as a result of such displays. The art rooms are filled with student-made items from drawings to paintings, from jewelry to pottery. Each is a personal expression by the student, an individual contribution of worth, unmatched by another, in art and in music.

concerts, art shows, displays, and on the job

Jackie Pellerin applies her skills as learned in Home Ec as she sews a pair of pants she is making for herself. Practical skills such as this enable students to express themselves in areas other than art or music.

Brian Dahl "hangs on" to the chain while another student makes an adjustment.

BUSINESS, HOME EC, AND INDUSTRIAL ARTS provide students with personal and employable skills. A number of students are employed immediately upon graduation from high school as a result of the skills they have developed. Some explore higher education, but they still rely upon the basics from high school. The curriculum is developed to meet the needs of the individual and the job market — providing employment and personal skills as well.

HEALTH

HEALTH teachers, Nick Colamarino and Glenn Harrison, work very closely on the material which they teach. A team approach is used in the 10th grade classes to provide the students better instruction. A number of speakers and films are used.

AND

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

PHYSICAL EDUCATION Athletic Director's typist, Kay Dickinson, does a great deal of work for the department as well (above left). Above: Ed Fick "hangs on" to do some chin-ups on the weight machine during an elective part of the phys ed classes; the sign that has become a motto for all athletes at Guilderland is above him.

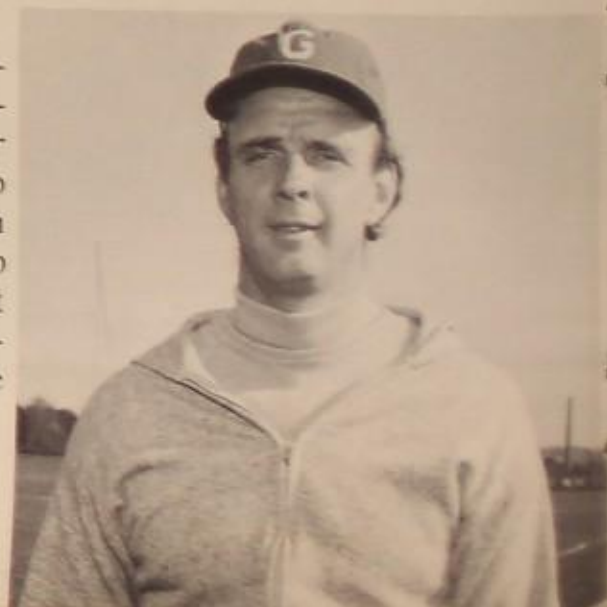

Robin Welge shows that eating a good breakfast can give extra energy. Hang on, Robin!

Bud Kenyon teaches juniors and seniors. He has also been instrumental in developing winning teams in football since he has been Head Coach, more than a decade.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION is required of all students; in order to graduate, each student must complete four years. Most students look forward to Friday, elective day, when they can choose the type of activity they want to do. Not all students enjoy phys ed, but the instructors try to make the experience pleasing and interesting, while still requiring participation.

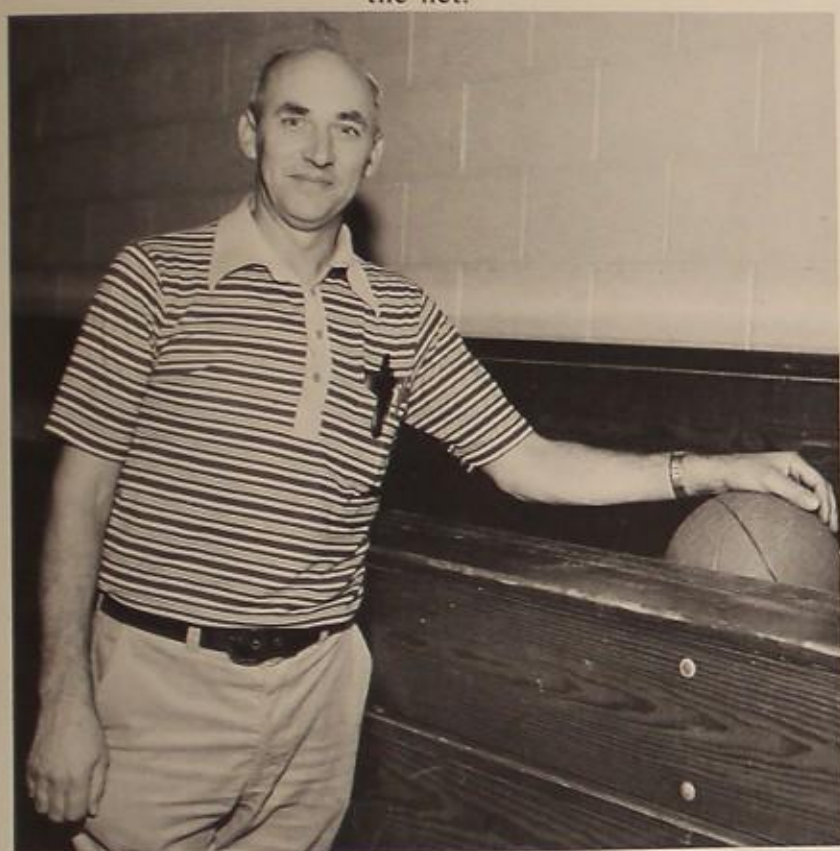

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR and instructor, Fred Field, readies the net.

Mel Hayden also coaches soccer and softball.

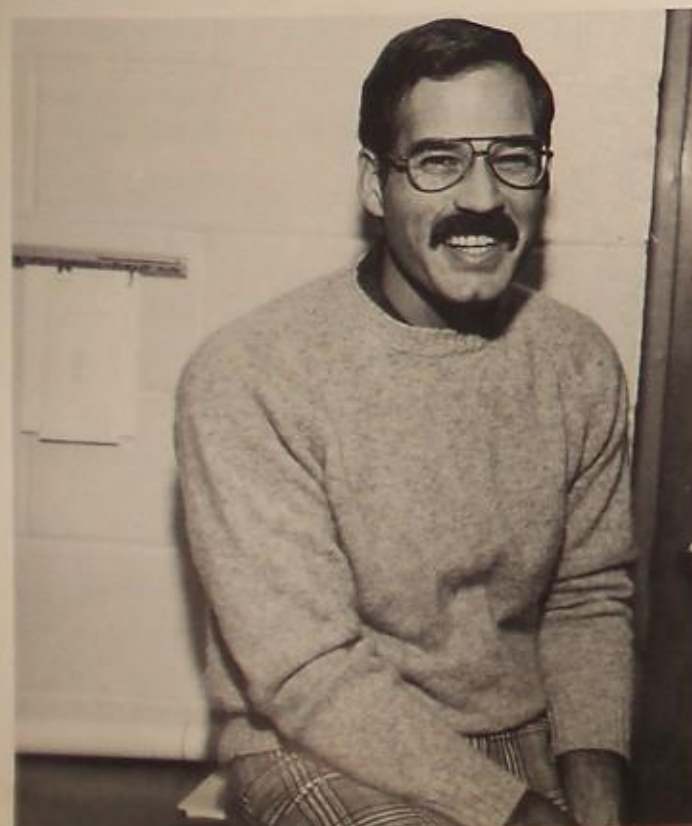

Dick Spohr works with the freshmen and sophomores. He also coaches Freshmen Baseball and Golf.

Shirley Tetreault, soccer and volleyball coach, speaks with a student teacher (above). PHYSICAL EDUCATION COORDINATOR Larry Urda has been instrumental in developing a more K-12 phys ed program (left). Wrestling Coach, Herm Wyld spends a great deal of time working on developing the individual student (right).

PHYSICAL EDUCATION in New York State, and especially at Guilderland, is beginning to concentrate on life-time sports. All classes are now co-ed, causing some minor problems, but still allow for individual differences in abilities and skills. Students are also allowed to pursue alternatives to phys ed, which, if approved and followed, allow the students to earn credit outside regular class.

LIBRARY SERVICES

LIBRARY services include, among other things, providing students and teachers with adequate periodicals, texts, reading materials, research volumes, etc., for school and personal use. The people working in the library try to provide the atmosphere to enable students to use the facility properly and with ease. They do all they can to guarantee that all materials remain available. Many pieces of equipment are available for student and teacher use, including a copier, which is often used by anyone who needs to use material which must remain in the library. This is one of the most frequented areas in the school.

Louise Adams, typist, prepares a sign.

Mary Bosworth, typist, checks over dues.

HEAD LIBRARIAN Del Ropke spends a great deal of time helping individual students. Here she is showing the vertical file.

3 Even after dark, the library is an active place. This photo in the morning shows that the staff is at work before the students get to school, with the facility open through the dismissal at 3:30. Students and teachers enjoy a moment of quiet before the activity of the day, picking up the New York Times or Times Union as soon as it arrives.

Rosemary Jenner checks a book in.

READING/MATH CENTER, Room 102, is buzzing with activity every day. Individual help is provided those students who need to better their skills in either or both. Tutors, other students who wish to help, are working at an average of 1 mod a day for each student wanting this help. Room 102 is also a place for students wanting some special reading material not in the library.

MATH SPECIALIST
Barb Sanders co-ordinate the program.

Above right: Nancy Lown greets students in the Center and does most of the typing for the staff. Lower right: Mike Fiorillo, Reading Aide, works with students in groups and one-to-one. Above: Sandra Chambers is responsible for the smooth running of the store. Under the supervision of Mrs. Sanders, Mrs. Chambers works with the students who want the store experience. The store also provided ticket sales services to clubs and organizations.

MATH/READING SERVICES

MEDIA SERVICES

MEDIA SPECIALIST Jim Tusty works with a student on video planning the taping, left. Above: Tim Doyle, Media Aide, wires the board for station transmission for the internal television system.

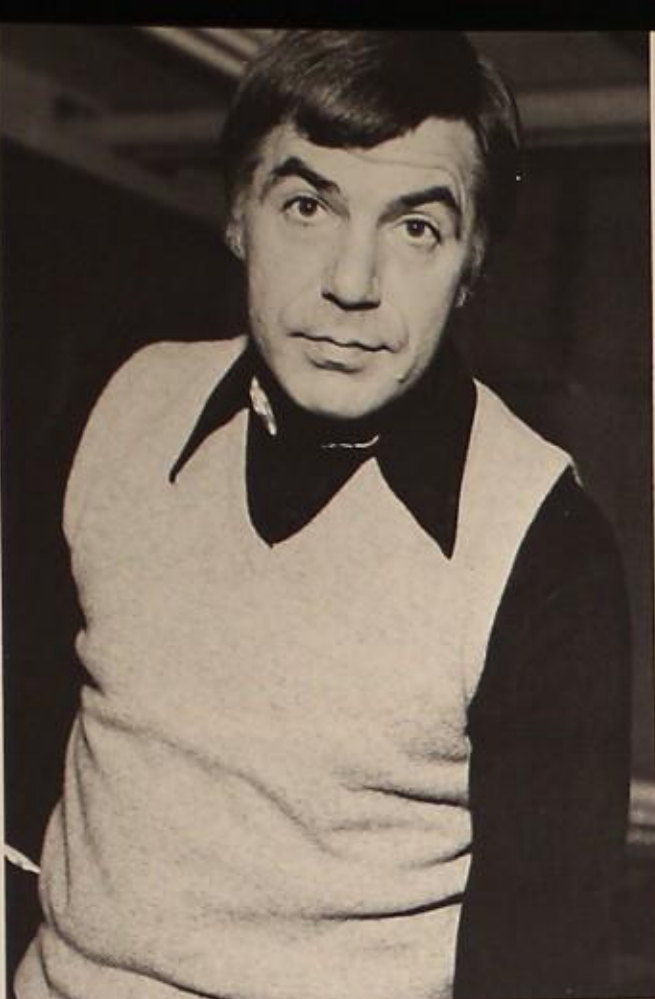

MEDIA is an important area in today's world. The program is enabling a large number of students to get hands-on experience.

1 The video tape machine is being used more widely in the school. Craig Shave, Wayne Kirchhoff, and many others were often asked to film events, move machinery, etc., and enjoyed doing it. 2 Students here are preparing for a studio taping and broadcast. 3 Cuyler VanDeCarr operates the camera during a program being televised from the studio.

Michele Blakely teaches students with hearing difficulties and coordinates their mainstreaming.

Bob Iagrossi works with the students in BOCES Special Education program and provides for their sequences.

Ann Stressel, Aide, works with BOCES students.

SPECIAL EDUCATIONAL SERVICES

Madeleine Rapant aids Miss Blakely's students.

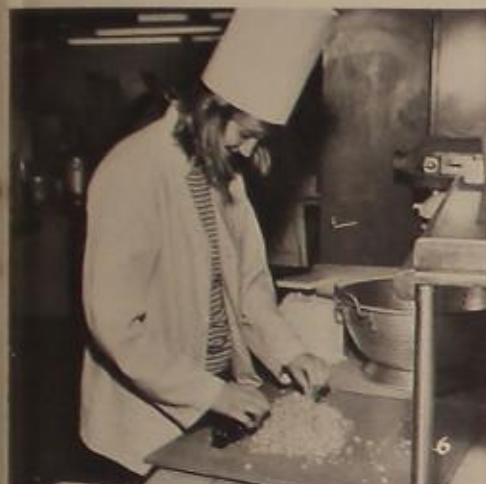

1 Nancy Tonetti, BOCES Special Education
2 Anne Poczobut, BOCES TMR Program
3 Jean Phelan, a BOCES Aide, helps reinforce the students in their mainstream classes. She works in typing class with Chris Teolis.

BOCES SPECIAL EDUCATION program involves work with students with handicapping conditions. Guilderland provides space for the students in regular classrooms, as well as locations for specific BOCES classes. A number of students come from other districts, being bussed in by these school districts. While a good segment of time is spent in BOCES-structured classes, a number of students do attend regular Guilderland classes.

BOCES

Dan Pahl holds the light for another BOCES Auto Mechanics student as they check the underside to determine the repair necessary.

1 Jeff Thatcher and Eloy Cottrell determine the body and condition before readying the truck for painting. 2 Dan Ody is nearly ready to apply the paint. 3 Body work involves painting and Paul Davis enjoys the job. 4 Dave LaGuardia, right, works on wiring a switch box while another student connects the wiring. 5 Fred Hoelzli and Mark Carpenter find wiring boxes an easy experience. 6 MaryAnn Wieland is demonstrating the proper way to dice foods. 7 Bill McIntyre chose the Foods Program at BOCES. 8 Lisa Rieth and Rose Miller use their second-year skills to trim Diana Crommie's hair. 9 Lynn Ganance, second-year Cosmetology student, does a hair frosting. 10 Kathy Vallee has her instructor check a paper during a class in Nursing. 11 Several first-year Cosmetology students practice their hair-styling techniques. 12 Yvonne Bonaparte has chosen Horticulture in BOCES, expecting to use the skill for employment. 13 Ken Anthony, right, shows the proper usage of one of the Machine Shop tools to another student. 14 Leave it to Rick Cellini to find the problem! 15 Dave Smith, right, helps the other students locate the voltage regulator.

BOCES provides the Occupational Center, bringing hundreds of students on site from many local schools at different shifts to learn vocational skills.

GUIDANCE

Margaret (Peg) Empie, Secretary

Sue Fiorino, Secretary, handles most of the transcripts.

Joan O'Brien, Secretary and Receptionist

Duff Bambury, like the other counselors, spends a great deal of his time in group counseling in addition to meeting with individual students.

checking student sequences, counseling students, etc. It involves a total commitment by the counselor to the students with whom he works — providing for needs, school and non-school related.

The Guidance Center provides a location where a student can meet his/her counselor, find college information, see and talk with college or employment representatives, get working papers, pursue career investigation, and do those things necessary to complete high school requirements as related to schedules and college or work application.

More demands have been made on the counselors as the school has expanded; with more emphasis being placed on program change, there are a great many more offerings requiring counselors to keep up with these changes to help their students. A new area of concern will be to help students choose the School (Community, Applied Arts, Liberal Arts, Creative Arts, Focus) which are being developed.

GUIDANCE involves more than scheduling classes, meeting students and parents, explaining programs, Marilyn Blum substituted First Semester. Donna Ross has the only split-alphabet list.

SAE

Senior Alternative Experience(s)

SAE involves three teachers with 33 students in a school experience which combines class instruction with community experience. Mr. Drake works full time with the students, while Linda Basinait (above) and Frank Pidgeon share their time with their respective departments.

SOCIAL STUDIES

Frank Andreone utilizes his knowledge of Japan and Hawaii in Asian Studies and 9th Grade SS.

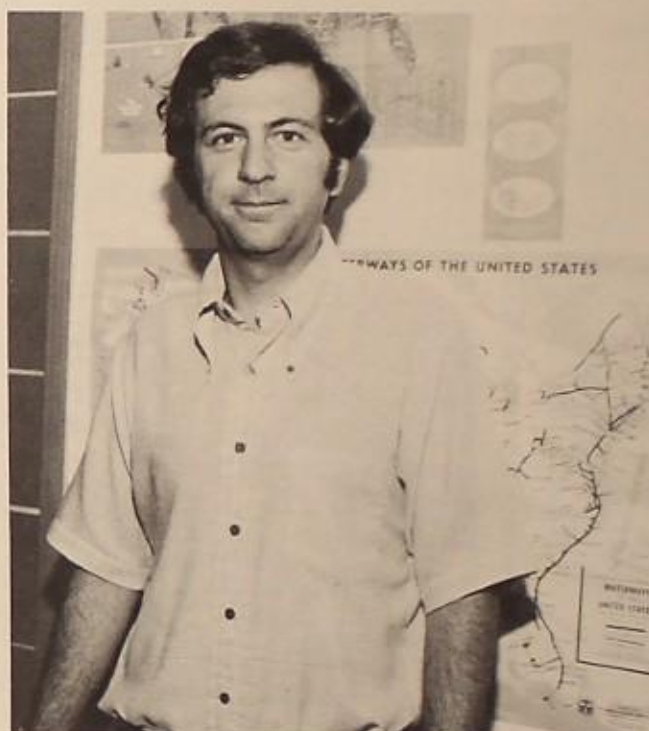

DEPARTMENT CHAIRPERSON Carl Herman teaches Design of Man and Anthropology.

Sandy Furman teaches 9th and 11th grade.

John Carley teaches 9th and 10th grade students. In addition he coaches JV Football.

Rick Cascini teaches Job Orientation and teams with Al Sholtes for a 9th grade class.

Dan Thomas teaches Sociology and 10th grade.

Risa Gregory also works with freshmen and sophomores.

Robert Parmenter teaches Communism, Family History, and 10th grade.

John Hotaling teams with Mr. Gearhardt in Consumer Education and teaches 11th grade as well. He coaches JV Football.

Tom Wege; grade 11

Sheri Stepanovich and Geri Broom work in the Hislish Room with George Sengenberger, teacher of 3 levels (10-12).

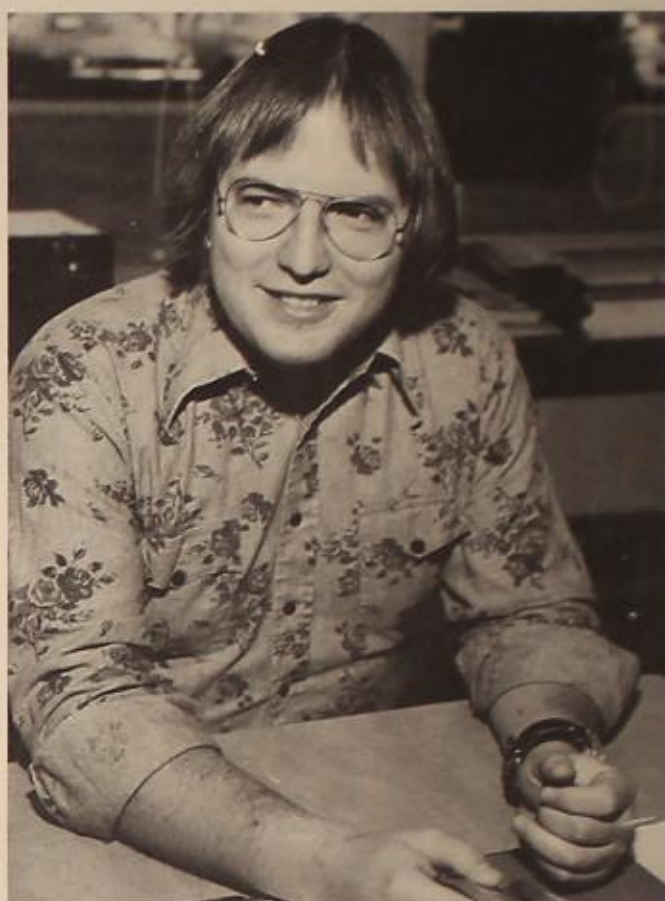

SOCIAL STUDIES at all levels involves learning factual information, research skills, reporting techniques — all at varying skill levels. The department is exploring alternatives to the present system.

ENGLISH, required of all students, grades 9-12, provides for the individual needs of the students, as do all the other departments at Guilderland. Special effort is made to match the students with their level of English ability in order to assure that the students will continue to achieve their potential.

As seniors, students may elect a variety of courses to suit their particular preferences. The department tries to provide enough sections to assure each senior his/her first or second choice.

Hugh O'Connor takes time from Project Advance, Cinema, and grade 11 to talk with Kathy Gibbs, who was able to do clerical work for him throughout the year.

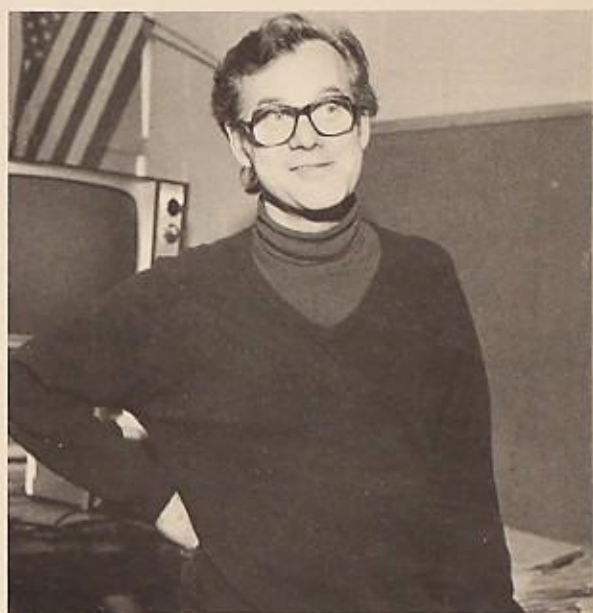

Allan Sholtes; grade 9, teams with Rick Cascini, Varsity Baseball coach

SCIENCE

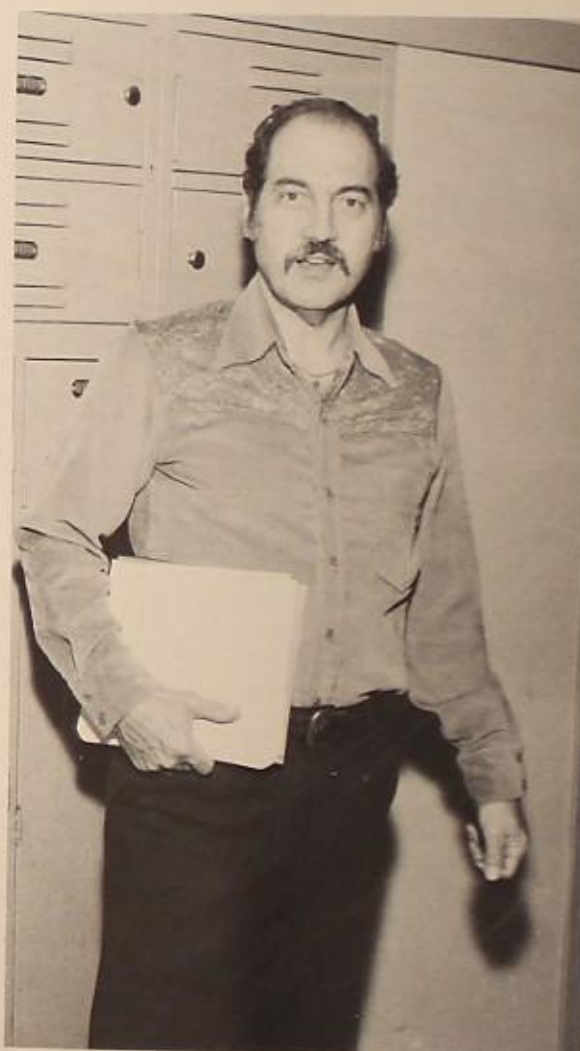

Richard Arnold; Science 9, General Physics, vocal director/Guilderland Players

David Bradley; Physics and Advance Placement

Rutsy Ferris; Science 9

Al Franzoni; General Chemistry, Biology

Kathy Lien; Biology. Mrs. Lien has, with other department members, developed a segment in Ecology and will teach Project Advance.

Fran Murphy; Physiology, Science 9. Miss Murphy teaches one of the more popular science courses, Physiology, and provides the students with field trips that encourage them to continue in the field.

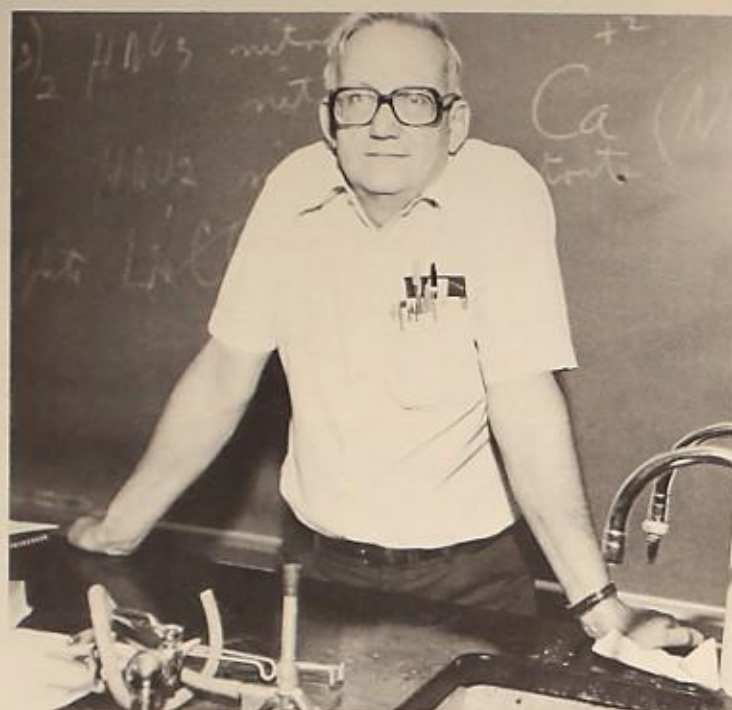

SCIENCE is required of every student in school; they must take one year, usually Science 9. Guilderland offers the traditional courses, with the not-so-traditional approaches by the teachers, and many other advanced level offerings. Advance placement is encouraged and the Syracuse Project will be taught next year.

Lois Brown (left) readies many of the items for experiments, expedites ordering, and does many other tasks as Aide in the Science Department. Dick Burda (above); General Chemistry

HOME ECONOMICS is chose by both boys and girls as elective sequential courses. Advanced Foods is the more popular among the senior boys.

The Home Ec Department provides courses in housing, foods, clothing, family living, child development, and careers in home economics. A portion of instruction includes demonstrations, speakers, and field trips. Students prepare foods and fashions for the end-of-year fashion show, usually held in the courtyard. Tots and older children are entertained yearly as a project of the Child Development classes.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS provides students the opportunity to work with their hands — cars, wood, wiring, etc. At Christmas the students made toys to be given to local children. Much of their work has been displayed at the Colonie Center. Some of the more notable items included a grandfather's clock, night stand, hutch, and cutting board.

As in the other Applied Arts, a great deal of satisfaction is experienced by the students because they produce a finished product. In addition, prizes are awarded at the end of the year to students who achieve a particular skill development.

Next year, this department and the others on this spread will be developing a Personal Skills Course.

MATHEMATICS is required of every student — one year is mandated by the State. Many students elect to take at least one other math course, either in the Business Department or in the Math Department. A large number of students are college bound and use Math as their sequence — Math 9, 10, 11 and often take 12 and 13 as well.

An added feature is the terminal in the Guidance Center. A number of students use this in conjunction with their math course — often electing to take Computer Math to get more experience. The IBM 1620 is also used but is in less demand as the students prefer the terminal.

Though we meet the Operational Staff often, we do not consider and recognize the importance of the work they do — until buses break down and there's no school, bathrooms leak and have to be closed, windows get broken and have to be repaired, etc., etc. These people hang in there every day, doing their work. We missed photographing many, but do appreciate all!

Lee Reynolds retired February 18, 1978. Difficult to photograph, he finally got caught — twice!

FRESHMEN BASEBALL had a 5-7 record. Mike Ward led the hitters with a .350 average—4 for 5 against Mohonasen in 20 runs scored for GCHS. Joe Zanta led pitchers in strikeouts, his best day against Scotia, striking out 8 and giving up only 2 hits and 3 runs.

JV BASEBALL players included Paul Cain and Ron Czarnetsky. While bad weather made taking game pictures impossible, scheduling a team photo was even more impossible. A total of 15 players comprised the team, with many looking forward to a better year in 1978!

Guilderland's 1977 Varsity Baseball Team won the Suburban Council and Class A Section II Championships, thereby repeating its 1976 performance.

The Suburban Council championship was won on the last day of the regular season, the team finishing the Council with a 12-6 record. Guilderland swept through the Sectionals, beating the Gloversville team 6-2, Shaker 5-4 in eight innings, and then clinching its second straight championship with a 12-1 win over Saratoga at Albany's Bleecker Stadium. The team's overall record was 16-7.

GUILDERLAND'S bid for third successive season as Council and Section II Class A champions was stopped by Colonie in Section play. So the team had to settle for three-time winners of the Council title, a record in itself.

The team's 13-5 record was tied with Coloni and the teams shared the 1st place ranking. Good last inning hitting and determined pitching brought Guilderland its title. Though an injury kept Khris Clemens out of some games, the hitting remained steady—Khris' average was about .400. No one person can take responsibility for the six games won by one run—the team was tough and often came from behind to keep the crowd on its feet. GCHS beat Linton, 7-6, but lost to Colonie, 3-2, in Section II.

Guilderland's base stealing helped.

Steve Arket may make the turn to try for two.

Paul Duma heaves the ball, hoping for another strike out to win the game. Paul's strong season finish helped put Guilderland on top.

A very serious and intent bench helped Guilderland through some rough spots. Scorer Beth Sholtes kept the stats for the team.

BASKETBALL at Guilderland lacks height but not the spirit necessary to give the crowd a thrill. The Freshmen finished with a 7-7 record; they worked hard in practice on conditioning, developing individual skills, and learning how to play as a unit. Five different players led the scoring for at least one game. A bright future is predicted for the boys.

The JV finished their season with 11 wins and 7 losses, tied for 4th place in Suburban Council. Their improvement as a team was evidenced by 8-2 record in the last 10 games. Marc Lochner and Bob Paskiewicz had high game scores of 21 and 20, respectively. High average of 11 points per game were earned by Khris Clemens and Jeff Stracher.

The Varsity did not fare as well as the Freshmen and JV. Ending their season 6-12, Guilderland kept their spirit to the end. Dan Ryan was top scorer with 22 points per game average, finishing second in the Council. Coach Adams felt the squad worked very hard but couldn't get the right combination to get the necessary rebounds.

BOWLING may be a pastime for some, but several students at Guilderland take it quite seriously. The team bowled well enough this year to go to Sectionals, but the team could have done much better. The strongest bowlers were Howard Gifford, Ron Ruf, Paul Diefendorf, and Mike Klein. The win/lose is scored for the team; and though the students bowl individually, scores are determined by team.

Players must practice on their own, as they bowl on the team only once a week. Next year should be a strong one.

Coach Wagner consoles Noreen Walsh, Girls' Captain, following race.

CROSS COUNTRY proved strong this year, tying Shaker for third in Varsity ratings, 5-3. The strongest runners were Bill McCartan for Varsity, Noreen Walsh for Girls, and Matt Vetro for Freshmen (No. 2 on all-time Frosh course).

In Section II, Guildersland placed 7th of 19 in Varsity Boys competition, 8th of 11 in Girls Varsity. Some records were set this year with homes that next year will bring more seasoned players ready to do the course in record time. A "first" was this year's participation in the "Federational" with Bill McCartan and Jim Cebula placing 44 and 56 of 120 runners and Noreen placing 38 of 80. In the state meet at Malone, Bill placed 72nd of 155 runners (6th in Section II) and Noreen, 87th of 158 (20th in Section II). Losing only three seniors this year should mean a good 1978 season.

VARSITY FOOTBALL began the season by losing to Shenendehowa 16-12 in a heart-breaker. As it turned out, Guilderland was the only team to hold the Plainsmen to 2 touchdowns during the Council schedule. Big Red fell on hard times with a struggling offense at 2-4 after 6 games.

Relying on team unity, the squad salvaged a 5-4 winning season, 13th straight winning season. They posted 3 straight shutouts, a school record, allowing only 85 points in 9 games. The highlight was the 45-0 victory over Shaker with senior Steve Allen rushing for 241 yards—a record.

Dan Ryan gets protection from Steve Schinnerer. In a 5-4 season, Guilderland lost 2 very close ones, winning the last 3 in shutouts. The team scored 142 points in the season with 85 against them. They hope for a strong season in 1978, even though they lose 20 seniors.

FRESHMEN FOOTBALL saw 52 players out for action with Joe Raiti and Paul Carpenter as captains. A tough season saw the Little Red with a 2-3-2 record. Good running by Farley and Wykes helped in scoring but the spark was the defense.

JV FOOTBALL showed team improvement, from 1-5-1 to 5-2-2, with determination the key. The defense held opposition to less than 8 points per game, with offense going to almost 20 points per game. The squad has championship quality.

Mud proved the opposition of the season. There were bright, sunny days at times with mix-up action to encourage the spectators. Always intense and determined, players like Gary and Jordan tune into the plays.

GUILDERLAND GOLF finished third in the Council with Peter Hubbs shooting the low score with a 78. In the Class A Tournament Guilderland finished 2nd with Pete at 81; Royak, 84.

In the Section II playoffs Bob Royak qualified for the State Golf Tournament with an 81. The Team finished with an 11-5 showing in the Council—shutting out Colonie once.

Karen Pauley sets the pace in the relay. Sue takes the hurdle quickly.

Liz runs hard-hoping to stay ahead.

The relay is a grueling race, as is the hurdles. Conditioning throughout the season is extremely important—especially during the first few practices when the muscles get a real workout.

INDOOR TRACK took a vacation for a year and now it's back in full force. Coach Jones found he had some rebuilding to do, especially since other sports had snapped up the tracksters—basketball, skiing, etc. It didn't take long to get some of the Cross Country members back on the track, and he continued from there.

Though the team did not take many honors, the effort was strong! With continued interest and hard work, the girls should do well next year. The boys, also, have a better outlook for the year to come.

With sticks in the air, the team is ready for action in this "near football" competition. The game has taken several from track — but the guys love the game.

A couple years ago, Art Waugh tried an event with a handful of interested athletes. The event, a mini-sporting event for interested students in Lacrosse, has mushroomed to an interscholastic sport, at least in part. This year saw Guilderland host to two schools for meets, with an exhibition at the Learning Fair on a Saturday for interested parents and friends of the participants.

SKI TEAM made an excellent showing. There were many individual standouts, with Jim Roberts placing 7th at the state meet in downhill, Mark Stevens placing 30th out of 70 in the cross country competition his first year out, and Sharon Karl skiing Varsity as a freshman.

Alpine skiing was the strongest. Although the girls division remains weak, improvement is expected next year. The squad should show an increase next year with added interest in the sport spurred on by the number of slopes available within a relatively short distance.

BOYS FRESHMEN SOCCER was competitive, as evidenced by numerous closely fought contests. Lost games occurred mainly in the closing minutes of play: 0-10-2 record.

Tom DeFillips, an 8th grader, led the scoring; with outstanding defensive efforts by Pete Bellacosa and Ed Smith. The tri-captains were Dan DeFillips, Roberts, Sheehan.

Team mates are always there when someone goes down. Chriss Rafferty picks up the ball from Judy Ward.

The second season for Frosh girls showed a 1-5-2 record. A strong backfield prevented many goals being scored against the girls, but scoring was a problem.

THE GIRLS completed their season with a 3-7-1 record. Several were lost by 1 goal or penalty kick. It was a season characterized by hard work and dedication. Captains Welge and Hornbach did a good job promoting harmony and team spirit. The backfield was strong, but the offense needed to get it together.

JV BOYS Top: Coach Don Kline, Don Kent, Bob DiBella, Jim McGinnis, Rich Martin, Jamie Johnson, Bill Boudreau, Norm Morrisson, Brian Ford, Matt Golonka. Front: John O'Donnell, Tim Benson, Dave Knauss, Jim Gula, Mike Vottis, Art Rogers, John Purcell, Tim Smithies. BOYS JV SOCCER had an exceptionally fine season with a 8-5-4 final record. The tri-captains (Bob Frederick, Jim Gula, Mike Zwicklbauer) did a great deal to keep team spirit at a high. One major difficulty during the season was the need to have practices inside due to cold and rainy weather. Additional activities (lasagna supper) provided the team with new warmup suits, the first time the team has had new apparel. The boys are looking forward to a very successful year in 1978.

GIRLS SOCCER fared well, with Suburban Council Championship well in hand. The defeat came in Sectionals; the second game proved too much.

VARSITY BOYS had the best defense in the Suburban Council — recording 11 shutouts. They won their last 10 Section II games and ended the season with the Section II Championship, the first time since 1967.

Honors received by members included: First Team All Suburban — Ed DuGuaq, Greg Hilt, Eric Laier, Rich Mohr; Third Team — Khris Clemens; Honorable Mention — Brian Moxey, Shayn Armstrong, Brian Leninger, Joe Kuhn.

After a slow start, they finished the season 1 game behind Burnt Hills — played at Cornell's Schoellkopf Field.

Guilderland provided the freshmen an opportunity to play softball for the first time this year. Up until now the freshmen had to compete with the upperclassmen for spots on JV and Varsity — now with their own team, more girls are able to play. While not sporting an impressive season, the girls did achieve a 5-5 record, which is certainly a good first effort. 1979 should be a good year!

JV and VARSITY SOFTBALL for 1978 expanded to 1½ the schedule. Both squads had a strong year — JV losing only one league game to Shenendehowa to tie for 1st in the Council. The Varsity tied with Bethlehem for the Council title with records, 11-2. Strong hitting on both squads proved to be the key. Varsity dropped their 2 to Shen., Bethlehem. Next year may prove difficult for the gals, but with all coaches working together, they should be better prepared. Shenendehowa will be tough.

In Sectional play, Guilderland met Amsterdam two days in a row — poor weather postponed the 5-inning first game (5-5) — with Guilderland winning decisively the second day, 11-2. The game against Bethlehem at Waterford proved difficult — with the Guilderland squad falling short in the field in a 10-7 game. Robin Welge proved vital in the series.

Sue Sand really leans into the hit at Shaker.

Michelle St. Pierre reaches for a pitch to add to her hitting percentage. Voted MVP for the team, Michelle had more than 60 rbi's for the season.

Carol Redmond shows the style which made her the most consistent pitcher for the team. Carol and Jean Hennessey, as well as Lynn LeBlanc, saw the most action in their respective roles.

TENNIS for the girls proved more successful this year than any other. The squad posted a 5-8 record with Ellen Harrington voted the MVP. The squad was the underdog during many matches but defeated Burnt Hills in an important match, 5-4. The whole team worked together, totally supporting each other. The underclassmen are strong and should be assets in the next year. Coach Rorick is dedicated to the team, bringing them out of a total losing rut.

Grag Dwyer returns the serves with a strong forehand stroke.

TENNIS is not easy! Tennis requires concentration! This is what the team has found out and until they can get the right combination, they are going to continue to have difficulty. The strongest members proved to be Jody Knauss and Andy Andersen. Even they had some very hard matches to handle. The weather was not always cooperative, and it was sometimes necessary to play several continuous days to make up for the lost time. Since a number of other sports are being played during this season, it is difficult to encourage boys to join the team. Coach Snyder has, however, been working on ways to increase interest and may have the solution before too long. In the meantime — "Hang in there, tennis players."

GIRLS SPORTS has been increasing in importance for several years, evidenced by the number of teams that are provided for the girls. Each year a number of girls are unable to participate because space is limited and competition is getting stiffer. The caliber of play is getting more sophisticated, demanding more talent and hard work. At least two sports are available each season. This year, the girls have made one sport stand out in each of the sports seasons — either by taking a first or by getting to Sectional play. In all cases the girls are learning hard work and fair play are important to success. Some firsts came out of this year also — Michelle St. Pierre received the MVP award for three sports — volleyball, soccer, and softball: A difficult accomplishment!

Beth Sholtes received the MVP award from Coach Field at the Awards Picnic. She performed consistently in her Gymnastics Meets earning her the honor.

The strongest team proved to be the girls GYMNASTICS, taking the Suburban Council Championship three years in a row (a record for Guilderland Girls Sports) and the Section II title as well. Varsity SOFTBALL took the Suburban Council Championship in 1978, capturing the Section II Championship in 1977. A great deal of credit must be given the parents, as well as the girls and coaches, for the support and effort on behalf of the girls. Mr. David Palmer was probably the strongest supporter — by being to nearly every game of any season, something the girls appreciated very much. Some teams were able to purchase new uniforms this year, either through the regular budget or through efforts of various parent groups.

Guilderland can expect further achievements as a result of community interest as well. The Town has done a great deal to foster growth in softball and gymnastics and is looking to programs in basketball and soccer for girls.

BOYS AND GIRLS TRACK, while looking for a strong year in both, accomplished records in Girls Track more often than Boys. Due to demands in other areas taking some of the better competitors, the boys teams faltered this year. Hampered by some injuries, and the bad weather, they fell behind their record of last year. Hopefully 1979 will be more encouraging.

1977 TRACK was one of the largest teams in Guilderland's history. There were 61 members, not including Freshmen. The team showed great enthusiasm and improved individually as well as a team. There were 32 sophomores on the team who will contribute greatly to the sport at Guilderland.

The new 1977 coaches helped make 1977 a great success. Assistant Varsity coach Keith Beebe and Freshmen coach Glenn Harrison contributed greatly to the teams' successes.

Seniors Mike Schaffer, John Geritz, Darrell Knowles (from Australia), Pete Cure, Robert Collen and Mark Hotchkiss were the main stays of the team. Jim Cebula and Bill McCartan were the best junior competitors, both setting records (in 1978 Jim went to All State and competed) with Bill McCartan qualified for the State meet in the 880 run, a 1:57.9. Pete Cure was the Sectional Pole Vault Champ and finished 7th in the State at 13'6". The 1977 record was 3-8 in dual meet competition, Guilderland's first losing season in 8 years.

VOLLEYBALL

JV VOLLEYBALL Back: Laurie Czarnetzky, Julie Evans, Linda Sturn, Val Bruce, Sheila Ruddy, Bernice Marks, Mary Anne Orsini, Coach Shirley Tetreault. Front: Chris Burger, Chris Arket, Sharon Hamm.

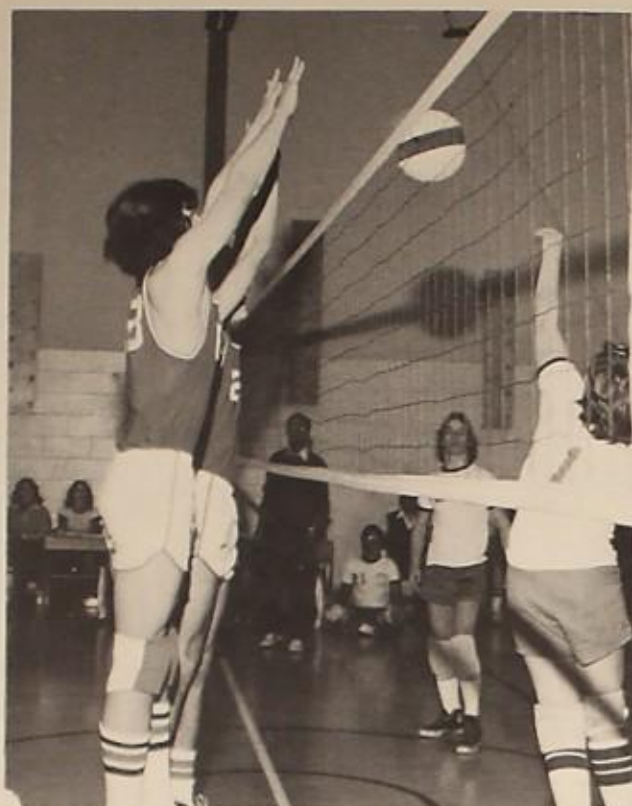

The JV GIRLS VOLLEYBALL team worked to overcome their inexperience as many were in their first interscholastic competition in the game. As the season closed, they had acquired a better knowledge and better skills — most will be back next year on either JV or Varsity.

The VARSITY team ended their season as Suburban Council Champions and Runner-up Section II with an 8-0 league tally and 10-0 overall.

THE JV and VARSITY BOYS teams were tough but found the going rough. The JV outdid the Varsity with a 9-7 record. The Varsity's 3-15 record did not show the tremendous amount of spirit and drive the boys had. Though a determined group, they just couldn't seem to get it together. A number of the matches were lost by a close margin, however; and the guys hung right in there—never admitting defeat until the last point was scored. With a number of boys returning next year, moving up from JV, the squad should be stronger. Jay Cusick was captain of the Suburban Council All-Tournament Team.

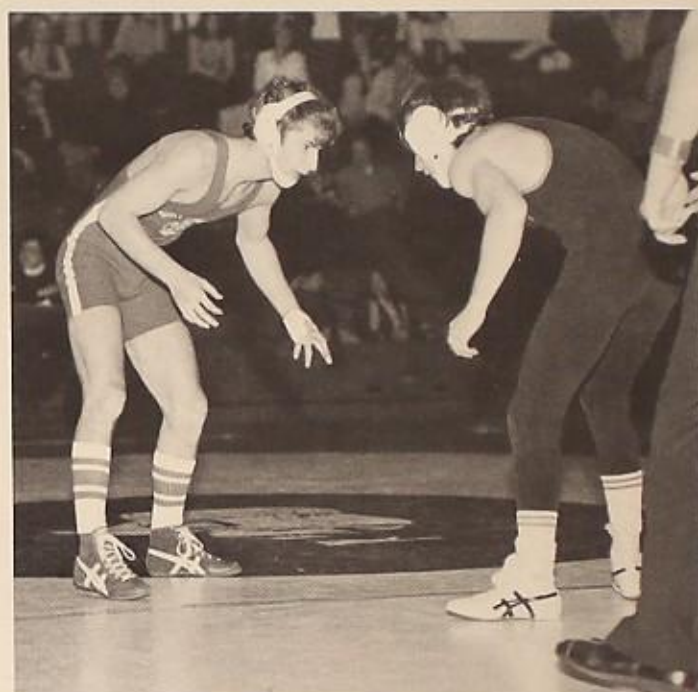

WRESTLING

All team members help get ready for a match.

Bill Hadersback readies for a take down — both are wary of the other's expertise.

WRESTLING battled many evenings of poor weather. There were many individuals who were able to bring the team scoring up, with a 5-4-0 Suburban Council record and 7-7 overall. The JV finished 6-3 in 3rd place. The majority of the team are eligible to return, with only four seniors leaving the Squad. 1979 should bring a strong Dutchmen showing in the Council and in Section II. Three of the team were in Sectional play.

Bruce DeCesare added to the team's strength.

Round we go — where we stop, no one knows!

Sports Is More Than Competition . . .

CLUBS

While sports claim a large number of students, clubs and club activities fill the time of many other students. With more than 20 different groups to which a student at Guilderland could belong, many find it difficult to choose AN activity and, therefore, undertake more than they really should. Students wanting other groups which meet their interests have found that school is willing to help them organize. Sometimes finding advisers is difficult, but a teacher usually provides the adult supervision so that a group may organize.

Business Service, Camping, Cheering Squad

CAMPING CLUB held paper drives to raise money for their trips this year. In addition to campouts, the group did some overnights and backpacking. Mr. Furman, adviser, helped the students set up the various activities. Changed in name from Conservation Club, the group's principles have not; the students still show a concern for the environment.

CAMPING CLUB Top: Steve Greene, Lynne Williams, Margaret Schwartz, Rich Jackson. 2nd: Dave Irwin, Donna Edmonds, Sharon Hedden, Colleen Flynn. 3rd: Frank Winoski, Kathy Barber, Jan Edmonds, John Murray. Front: Warren Stout, Greg Buckley, John Bylancik.

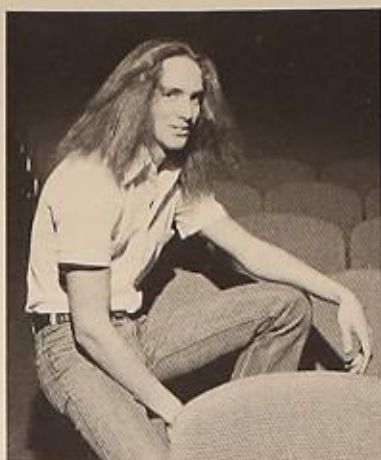

CHEERING SQUAD put up posters for the games, ushered, handed out programs, and cheered with the cheerleaders. They had a bake sale to earn money for a Senior Ceremony at the last home basketball game.

Chess Club, Debate, Emergency Team

CHESS CLUB Mike Peterson

CHESS CLUB was rather informal this year, with only a handful of students participating. The students learned how to play or expanded their skills by competing with equals.

DEBATE TEAM Paul De-Alleau, Lawrence Pisarski, Mike Bellacosa, Mike Behn, Paul Dwyer.

DEBATE CLUB contains some extremely energetic and bright individuals. The members participate in regional speech and debate tournaments against other schools. This year was a repeat of other years in terms of winning trophies in competition. The team took second place at the Albany Forensics tournament, with many of the students taking honors. The most unusual experience was in the state tournament against Bronx Sci, an experience which should precipitate more tournament debate before the students go to state competition. Though the team will lose many wizened members, as they graduate this year, the team has learned a great deal and should continue its rich tradition of winning trophies and competing well.

EMERGENCY TEAM John Jackson, Melinda Hedges, Craig Shave, Rich Jackson.

DEBATE CLUB Top: Curtis Carmack, Steve Klein, Robert Lehnert. 2nd: Paul Lee Zulfi Jafri, Anthony Lee. Front: Tony Renshaw, Andy Renshaw.

EMERGENCY TEAM is responsible for the smooth operation of any and all Air Raid Drills. These students also aid in instances where special fire drills are established and work with inspectors when fire inspections are made at the school. While the number of students is small, the input they have is of value regarding the operation of the drills that must be held by state law. The Team learns the procedures necessary to keep situations under control in case of actual fires, air raids, or other disasters.

SUMMER THEATER 'The Shape We're In' Top: Mary Clark, John McDermott, Michele Gee, Esther VanDeCarr. 2nd: Buddy Meagley, Kim Onderdonk, Deb Sperry, John Passafiume, Joe Burke. 3rd: Deb McDermott, Emilia Bernd. Front: Cheryl Sperry, Suzette Ruess, Andrea Shane.

STAGE CREW Top: Mr. Ted Vickery, Warren Stout, Rob Tallman, Ken Clough, Craig Sieme. 2nd: Debbie Waggoner, Laura Warner. Front: Pat Holt, Denise Fuller.

THE GUILDERLAND PLAYERS have many subgroups. The students in each subgroup are very important to the total production — 1978's production "South Pacific" was no exception. A great deal of credit must be given to the Dance Company since many of them were directly involved. The "hidden" stage crew pulls off many miracles with the props and scenery, often preventing disaster. The orchestra is invaluable, providing the background, accompaniment, and interludes. All work together with the cast to provide entertainment to last a lifetime — the memories from backstage, onstage, offstage and in front of the stage — as much for the audience as for the Players!

SUMMER THEATER provides students the opportunity to earn credit and have a good time while learning the development of a dramatic production. Many students have participated in a PLAYERS production or will in the following year. The students work six weeks in the evening during the summer to bring performances to the young at heart at the end of the summer. 1977's production was 'The Shape We're In.' More than 350 adults and children were at the three afternoon performances under the direction of Mr. Fred Heitkamp and Mrs. Agnes Armstrong.

HONOR SOCIETY Top: Terry Reilly, Peter Karl, Kath Donnellan, Stephanie Allen, Pam Williams, Beth Diehm, Kathy VanAmburgh, Michele Johnston, Kim Conklin, Martha Voluntine, Carol Redmond, Jean Hennes. 2nd: Janet Phillips, Jan Edmonds, John Nolan, Donna Redmond, Chris Brehm, Eileen Pezze, Demetra Pontisakos, Rich Jackson, Dan Anderson. 3rd: Margaret Day, Vicki Pugh, Vicki Embler, Bill McCartan, Sheri Stepanovich, Frances Ryu, Karen Knapp, Barbara Pettengill, Joe Bosco. 4th: Debbie Frisco, Robin Welge, Sue Mele, Chris Donohue, Geri Broom, Chris Thomas, Gina Persico, Wendy Martinez, Lori Hilton. Front: Donna Dapolito, Sharon Salmon, Sue Disney, Mike Montalbano, Gail Huberty, Cindy Young, Vikki Shane, Cori Daggett, Kim Korzeniewski. Officers at right: Sue Disney, Kim Korzeniewski, Mike Montalbano, Joe Bosco.

HONOR SOCIETY is composed of members of the sophomore, junior, and senior classes who have attained a set standard of grades. Only a very few freshmen may enter during the latter part of their freshman year. Students may apply once the academic requirements have been met. In order to keep their membership once they have been accepted, they must attend meetings and participate in the activities sponsored by the group. One of the events run by Honor Society is the race for the ANSWERS PLEASE team. The group has sponsored bake sales and taken educational trips in the past, though this year's group was not as active as in the past.

RIDING CLUB meets after school at the Mill Pond Stables to learn the fine points of horse(wo)manship and to spend an afternoon riding. "I enjoy the exercise," one member gave for her reason for participating. In addition to learning how to ride, the students also learn to care for the horse and equipment.

In addition to an International Weekend, the students arranged for the area students to attend Guilderland for a day in the spring and speak to many classes.

JOURNAL, the school newspaper, kept the student body informed of school news and items of interest to the school community. Each edition of the paper, published about once monthly, provides the students opportunity to contribute also — since the letters to the editor were common contributions.

Front: RoseMarie Morgan, Lynn Tetrault, Terry Liotta, Debbie Frisco, Linda Jamison, Martha Knapp, Debbie Palmer, Chris Macaione, Leslie Jacques.

SCEPTRE SERVICE is a girls' service organization which involves itself in many school and community activities. These activities include sponsoring Homecoming, raising scholarship funds, selling daffodils for the American Cancer Society, running the Blood Mobile in February, hosting the Donkey Basketball, and helping with the Winter Carnival. Miss Melanie Hayden was the adviser of the group.

Front: Gail Huberty, Jill Markham, Jeanne Monaco, Vicki Pugh, Barb Pettengill, Gina Persico.

SKI CLUB involves students from all grade levels. The trips were few but lively this year. For some reason the snow did not cooperate and few regular trips were held but there's always next year!

Music Organizations - Brass Sextet, Choir, Chorus . . .

THE MUSIC ORGANIZATIONS are noted for their excellent performances at at least two times of the year — the Winter Concerts and the Spring Concerts — when whole evenings are devoted to give the students an opportunity to perform, showing their strengths in the field of music.

The POPS CONCERT is a special treat for the public. A theme is chosen and music is played along the lines of the theme, with proceeds of the event going for music scholarships. At this and other events, the DANCE BAND is featured, with the public being able to participate on the dance floor.

The MUSICAL is another event which involves the singing and instrumental talent of the student body.

SAXOPHONE QUARTET: Deb McDermott, Tony Renshaw, Peter Bellacosa, Matt Mendel.

STAGE BAND performed at the two school concerts, the Pops Concert, the Scholarship Dance, and the Cerebral Palsy Telethon, to name a few of the performances. A versatile group, they play Disco as well as music from the '20's through the '60's.

The true test of skill is in the performance of that skill and the students in the Music Department perform well. Who knows? Some may become like Corky Christman, pictured below, who plays the harp professionally and comes to Guilderland to play for the musicals.

Nursing Groups - BOCES

While Nursing is one of the courses offered at BOCES, it could be considered a club. The students who elect to take it do not have time to participate in many other organizations as it demands a great deal of time. The juniors, without uniforms, sometimes need to double up in order to be able to complete the courses to enable them as seniors, pictured in uniform, to leave school during the second semester to practice what they have learned in the various clinics which require their skill.

Student Government, Work Experience

WORK EXPERIENCE Top: Mark Carr, Don VanPatten, John St. Louis, Bob Haines, Kevin DeGonzague, John Barber, Mr. William Leicht. 2nd: Brett Gorman, Ken Keeler, Todd Davis, Bob Jacobus, David Carr, Glenn Lupien, Paul Diefendorf. 3rd: Randy Crounse, Terri Gray, Laurie Harper, Katie Hanley, Patty Farley, Mark Ottman, Bonita Govel. 4th: Sue Engel, Sue Shippey, Sharon Domenico, Cindy Lee, Heidi Leisenfelder, Chrissy Rissacher, Cathy Plant. Front: Reid Krakower, Bill Giallonardo, Dennis Ruddy, Dave Ker-shaw, Ray Gaidusek.

WORK EXPERIENCE allows students to earn credit while working and earning money. It requires that the student turn in work cards, tabulating the hours worked during the week. If the student can accumulate 300 hours during the year, $\frac{1}{2}$ credit can be earned; if 600 hours, a full credit can be earned. Of course, the student must exhibit the skills necessary to do the work and the employer must be satisfied in order for the credit to be awarded. The jobs available are varied: office, secretarial, retailing, mechanical, etc.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT is one of the most important organizations at Guilderland. It is composed of representatives from all Social Studies classes. The goal of the group is to alleviate controversy within the student body — allow the students a say in setting policy, curriculum organization, and promoting the school image.

Students on the Curriculum Committee had as much say in accepting/rejecting new courses as the teachers. Their comments and concerns were voiced and taken into consideration.

Students instrumental in Student Government's positive action included the officers (Chris Knauf, president; Jim Wilson, vice president; Pete Redmond, secretary); Paul Lee, Executive Committee member; Mike Behn; and Joe Bosco.

The students took a stand on the Panama Canal issue and sent a letter to that effect to President Carter. Another stating their views was sent to Senator Moynihan, excerpts of which appeared in the Journal. The students can look to a strong Government in years to come.

WRESTLING PEP CLUB maintains all the records for the wrestlers, in addition to doing all the scoring at the matches. A number of people are important to the smooth running of the matches and good timers and scorers are invaluable. Publicity for the matches was handled by the members also.

YEARBOOK staff members find the publications a challenge and sometimes more than they can handle. The hours spent are numerous and, when the book finally comes out, rewarding. This year's theme, "Hang In There," was chosen because the book had a late start and those who were to work on it had already many other commitments. In addition the Communications 2 Class normally works on the production but was unable to do much this year.

YEARBOOK CO-EDITORS Kathy Gaidusek and Sandy Shenaur.

LEARNING FAIR 1977, May 6 proved a huge success. Originated by Sadie Schneider and Frank Pidgeon, staff members, the Fair was organized by students, community members, teachers, and administration. With 80+ different lectures, demonstrations, and activities held at the high school, students had a hard choice to make. Many of the activities were on-going so students could take advantage of those repeating throughout the day. Those who took an active part had very good experiences.

SOPHOMORE SEMI FORMAL 1977

A picture is worth a thousand words and this one of the evening under the stars is no different. Colleen Cook: "Two more hours and my feet are killing me!"

Even the cold weather didn't discourage the band from providing the much-enjoyed music for half-time. Hang in there!

Ken Clough — caught up in stage work!

Top: Chuck O'Hare says, "I can't even see my feet!" The seniors have the ball again. That seemed to be the inevitable as POWDER PUFF 1977 ended with a score of 33-0! The Class of '79 had better plan their strategy for POWDER PUFF 1978!

Top: The Thundering Herd races onto the field to Victory (and a few bruises, hand burns, bumps, etc.). Middle: The seniors show perfect form at kickoff. Bottom: The juniors try a tackle of their own! November gave us a new Superintendent — Peter Alland.

December 1977

The Mime Company of Burnt Hills December 15

SCEPTRE SERVICE and KEY CLUB again ran the toys for tots and turkey drive with assistance from the staff and student body. A number of Guilderland families had turkey, ham, and canned goods which they would not have if these caring people hadn't thought enough of somebody else to help out!

GIRLS SOCCER enjoyed their banquet at the Bavarian. MC Ryan imitates Shirley T.

Even the seniors kept in the spirit by decorating the East Lobby for Christmas. The class of 1980 decorated the West Lobby window and main corridor with festive items. Industrial Arts made toys to make the Christmas happier for some.

January 1978

With the new year came that lovely thing called snow. We had our share, even had snow days. Some students, even though let out early, never made it home until 7 pm on a couple occasions. And when it thawed — Niagara Falls in the 200 Wing, Swampville in the 100 Wing, and Puddle City all over.

Sylvia Han, Courtney Purrington, Barb Sgambellone, Sean O'Neil, Shannon Scott, Kathy McKee — All-State musicians in December at Kiamesha Lake, NY.

INTERNATIONAL WEEKEND brought together all the exchange students in the Albany Area together for a couple days — Rotary and AFS students participated in class, at lunch, and group presentations at Guilderland. They stayed at several homes in the area, with an opportunity for the parents to get acquainted also.

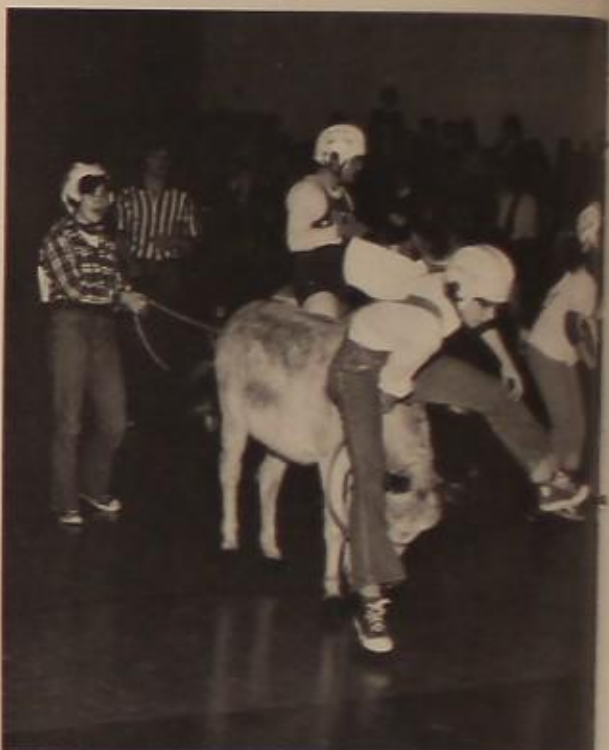

The main comment by several students was that the time was too short.

"It's mine! Get your own, Jacqui!"

Donkey Basketball

SCEPTRE's annual Donkey Basketball is another hit with over $300 raised for the Scholarship Fund. The antics were provided by seniors, high school, middle school, and elementary school teachers and administrators. Even Chris Arket's admonitions seemed to help the seniors to victory — 18-16! Mr. DePersis seemed to find things going downhill. Oh, well!

The Ninth Annual Production of the Players "South Pacific" Before and After Lissa Davey and Linda Testa model their creations.

March

GUILDERLAND PLAYERS' production transforms an auditorium into a South Sea paradise. More than 100 auditions, five months, lots of gray hairs (more ways than one) and one lost backdrop, and another production is complete. OKLAHOMA next year?

April

A WASHINGTON TRIP was enjoyed by Barb Blakely, Madeleine Rapant, Mary Anna Muscolino, Michele Blakely, Paul Leppig, Chris Boyce, and Jeff Dufresne in April.

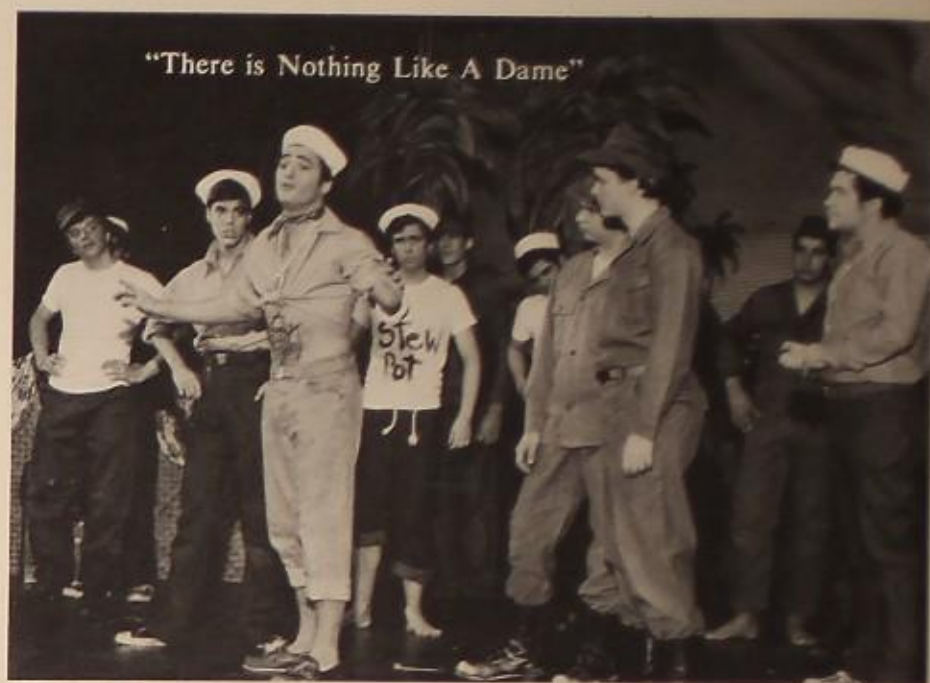

The students helped to raise their own money by selling shirts signed with "I Love You" in both the written and signed words. Rose Pereira and Nikki Tshara joined these students in their visit to the many sights of the historic city. They are hoping to make other trips in the future and by the way they seemed to enjoy this one, the next one will have to go a long way to top this experience.

Rodgers And Hammerstein's

Ngana (Tonja Drake) and Jerome (Scott Armstrong) open "South Pacific" with the light "Dites-Moi".

"There is Nothing Like A Dame"
Luther Billis (Bill Coulter) leads the men (Jeff Perlee, John Bylancik, "Stew Pot" John McDermott, Tom O'Brien, Steve Klein, Pete Ermides, Mike Jiusto, Frank Pomellitto, Rusty Van Syckle)

Even chicken pox didn't keep Laurie Bradt from making an appearance in the show (seated center).

Cable (Paul DeAlleaume), Brackett (John Passafiume), Harbison (Gary Barkman) try to convince DeBecque (Buddy Meagley).

"South Pacific"

"Schlunken head"

— and the shower REALLY worked —

"Younger Than Springtime"

"Honey Bun"

The hours and hours were worthwhile when — the shower worked, the drop came (the second time), the sets came in place, the lines fit, Billis stole the show, etc., etc.,

It was hard to believe after all the rehearsing, making up, set constructing, and changing and rechanging that the big night was here. All too soon the performances were over and all that remained was the memory of the hours of hard work, disappointments, and set backs — and the laughs, the tears, the fun, the friends — that led to the four house-filled performances, the satisfaction of pleasing the audiences, and the realization that what we had done was good! All the fun we had will long be remembered, long after the sets go up again for the next show.

APRIL Sophomore Semi-Formal 1978 . . .

Chuck Ackner and Diana Dominic look eager to begin the evening at the Semi-Formal.

John Bylancki seems preparing to leave while Bob Frederick, Donna Stressel, Rick Martin, and Patti Mastrianni have only just begun.

John Sweeney, Kris Chamberlain, Jill Pomakoy, and her date seem to be the only ones in the room, above. Below right: Mike Marotta seems shocked by something he's seen, but Sharon Esler doesn't even bat an eye.

Mr. Brian Driver and his date seem to be enjoying the evening. The table decorations were given to the couples at each table, all decorations made or fashioned by the Class.

Junior Prom 1978 . . . "We May Never Pass This Way Again"

MAY 1978

The King and Queen

The Court: (missing from photo, Dean Ermides) John Furdon, Eric Jerabek, Mark LaMalfa, Jeff Jones, Matt Schafer, Ron Czarnetzky, Dan Kilmartin, King Michael Ortale, Queen Geri Broom, Nancy Esmay, Jackie Fouhy, Kim O'Hare, Sue Barry, Donna Redmond, Helen Lazic, Sue Towers, Kim Conklin — voted by the Class of 1979 to have the most spirit and outstanding qualities which deserve recognition.

"We May Never Pass This Way Again" but we've had fun along the way! The Class of 1979 looks to the future — and next year's events with new officers to lead them (in some cases the same people in different capacities). The setting at the Sheraton Airport Inn in Albany will be remembered by the more than 300 who attended and especially those who put the hours into planning the event, the first Junior Prom outside school. On to even better things . . .

Dan McCullough, Clare Gaul, Mike Dorato, Eva Halasz, Kevin Cronin, and Liz Bachand have varied reactions to the photographer. Below could be captioned: "Then" and "Now"

Last year's queen and king, Paige Killoran and Mike Munroe, bring the crowns for the coronation ceremony. A large crowd of parents and friends look on with expectations of the announcement.

1977-78 Hang Ups . . .

Clockwise from top left: Dean's office, dentist's office, doctor's office, classrooms, hospital, funeral homes. The seniors, Class of 1978, were polled for their least liked places. The places pictured here are only represent the locations mentioned. We called these "Hang Ups".

Left: Joanne Crounse and Mel Huls are "Hung Up".

Hang Outs . . .

1977-78

Left: Many students bowl and chose this spot as one often attended. Top: A number of students like 'fooz' and do well at the games. Right and below: Students organized a fire safety group at the high school this year — there are more than 30 firemen and junior firemen (or persons, as a number are girls).

The boys' and girls' rooms, as well as home, were high on the list.

Price Chopper employs many seniors, and this was frequented by many.

Where would we be without McDonald's? Two other spots mentioned by a number of seniors are pictured above and left. Will the importance of all of these change as the years pass?

Hangs In With Most . . .

their friends and family were mentioned most in this category. Favorite TV included "MASH" and Monty Python.

ATHLETIC PICNICS have been a common event for several years. This gives athletes of all teams a chance to compete together in less organized fashion — and “pig out” on picnic food.

Top left: Track coaches talk with Karyn Suhr. Top: Coaches Sholtes and Kenyon on cook detail. Right: Coach Hotaling's in charge of the buns. Left: Jack Cunningham, Tom Doyle, and Jay Cusick (Volleyball MVP) pause for some heavy eating. Above: Mrs. St. Pierre talks with Robin and Sharon. Right: “small talk”

A little co-ed football was on the agenda, with a large number of girls participating with the guys.

“Pigging out” was the more common event of the day — hot dogs, hamburgs, soda, fudgsicles

Awards

A subdued crowd awaits the awards.

Mr. Ciaccio and Mr. Snyder participated in an award to Don Kline for his dedication to soccer — a plaque to show appreciation.

Mr. Field calls attention to all the team trophies — the most in any one year — to be placed on display in the already bulging trophy case. Twenty-three athletes were honored with Michele St. Pierre and William McCartan receiving top honors as All Sports Trophy winners. Other special awards included: Farnsworth Award, Tom Wyld; Lineman of the Year, John Rosenbach, Peter Thiele Plaque, Joe Kuhn. The MVP awards were made to players in all sports.

Mrs. Barbara Nurnberger talks with some of the crowd at the Awards presentation.

July

EMPIRE STATE PLAZA hosted 13 students of the Dance Company along with the Guilderland Town Band, who performed in concerts during July and August.

The groups were led by GiGi Obloy and Don Webster, respectively. Students (John Passafiume, Mary Clark, Gregg Nolte, Joe Burke, Emilia Bernd, Brenda Adams, Deb McDermott, Debbie Sperry, Sheryl Sperry, Lana Shane, Andrea Shane, Colleen Flynn, and Kim Onderdonk) danced to excerpts from "West Side Story," performed "Slaughter on 10th Avenue." More than 2,000 attended the concert pictured here.

So much emotion
 packed into four years —
 so many feelings well up inside me
 as I look back.
 Looking back . . .
 I strain my eyes and can see the pain and joy that have carried me this far.
 And as I look back on hurts past,
 I want to reach out a loving hand to the girl I once was,
 stroke her forehead, and say,
 "it's all right . . ."
 But time has gradually reached out instead—healing old wounds,
 wiping away old teardrops.
 As I look back,
 it's not the buildings I cry for,
 It's the people —
 so many people I never got to know.
 So many lives
 weeping in silence,
 rejoicing alone . . .
 We walk by, no exchange
 How would it have been if I had reached out of my shyness to touch your hand?
 Reflections too late — opportunities gone past . . .
 Through my tears,
 away in the distance,
 hope dances —
 sparkling and shining, reaching its beckoning fingers out to me — but its realization can only come through our sharing.
 Oh, my energy is so little and the distance so far.
 Will you walk there with me?
 Will you take my hand and hold me up when my knees give way?

-by Elizabeth Floyd

REMEMBERING . . .

To Brian:

"So, so you think you can tell,
Heaven from Hell?
Blue Skies from pain?
Can you tell a green field
from a cold steel rail?
A smile from a veil?
Do you think you can tell?
Did they ask you to trade,
your heroes for ghosts?
Hot ashes for trees?
Hot air for a cool breeze?
Cold comfort for change,
Did you exchange,
the walk-on part of the war,
for a lead role in a cage?

How I wish,
how I wish you were here.
We're just two lost souls
swimmin' in a fish bowl, year after year.
Runnin' over the same old ground,
what have we found?
The same old fears.
Wish you were here."

Brian Vetro

For a long time I've been trying to think of the words to describe the way Brian's friends feel about him, but love is always better to be shown than to be put into words.

Loving a friend whether shown by a phone call, just talking between classes, or living it up at a party is a love many of us now realize is something to appreciate and remember. Memories of Brian should never make us sad but rather lucky to have known someone in our lifetime to whom saying "good-bye" was so hard.

Contributed by a friend

Mrs. Sheila Jordon

Many of us will remember Mrs. Jordon in her capacity at the high school; others, as a good neighbor; still others, as a friend. All who knew her were touched by her concern, sincerity, steadfastness, and kind words. Her passing has left an emptiness filled only with the memory of her — others will take her place but can never replace her as an individual. We were glad to have known her and appreciate the time she had with us.

PETER H. THIELE

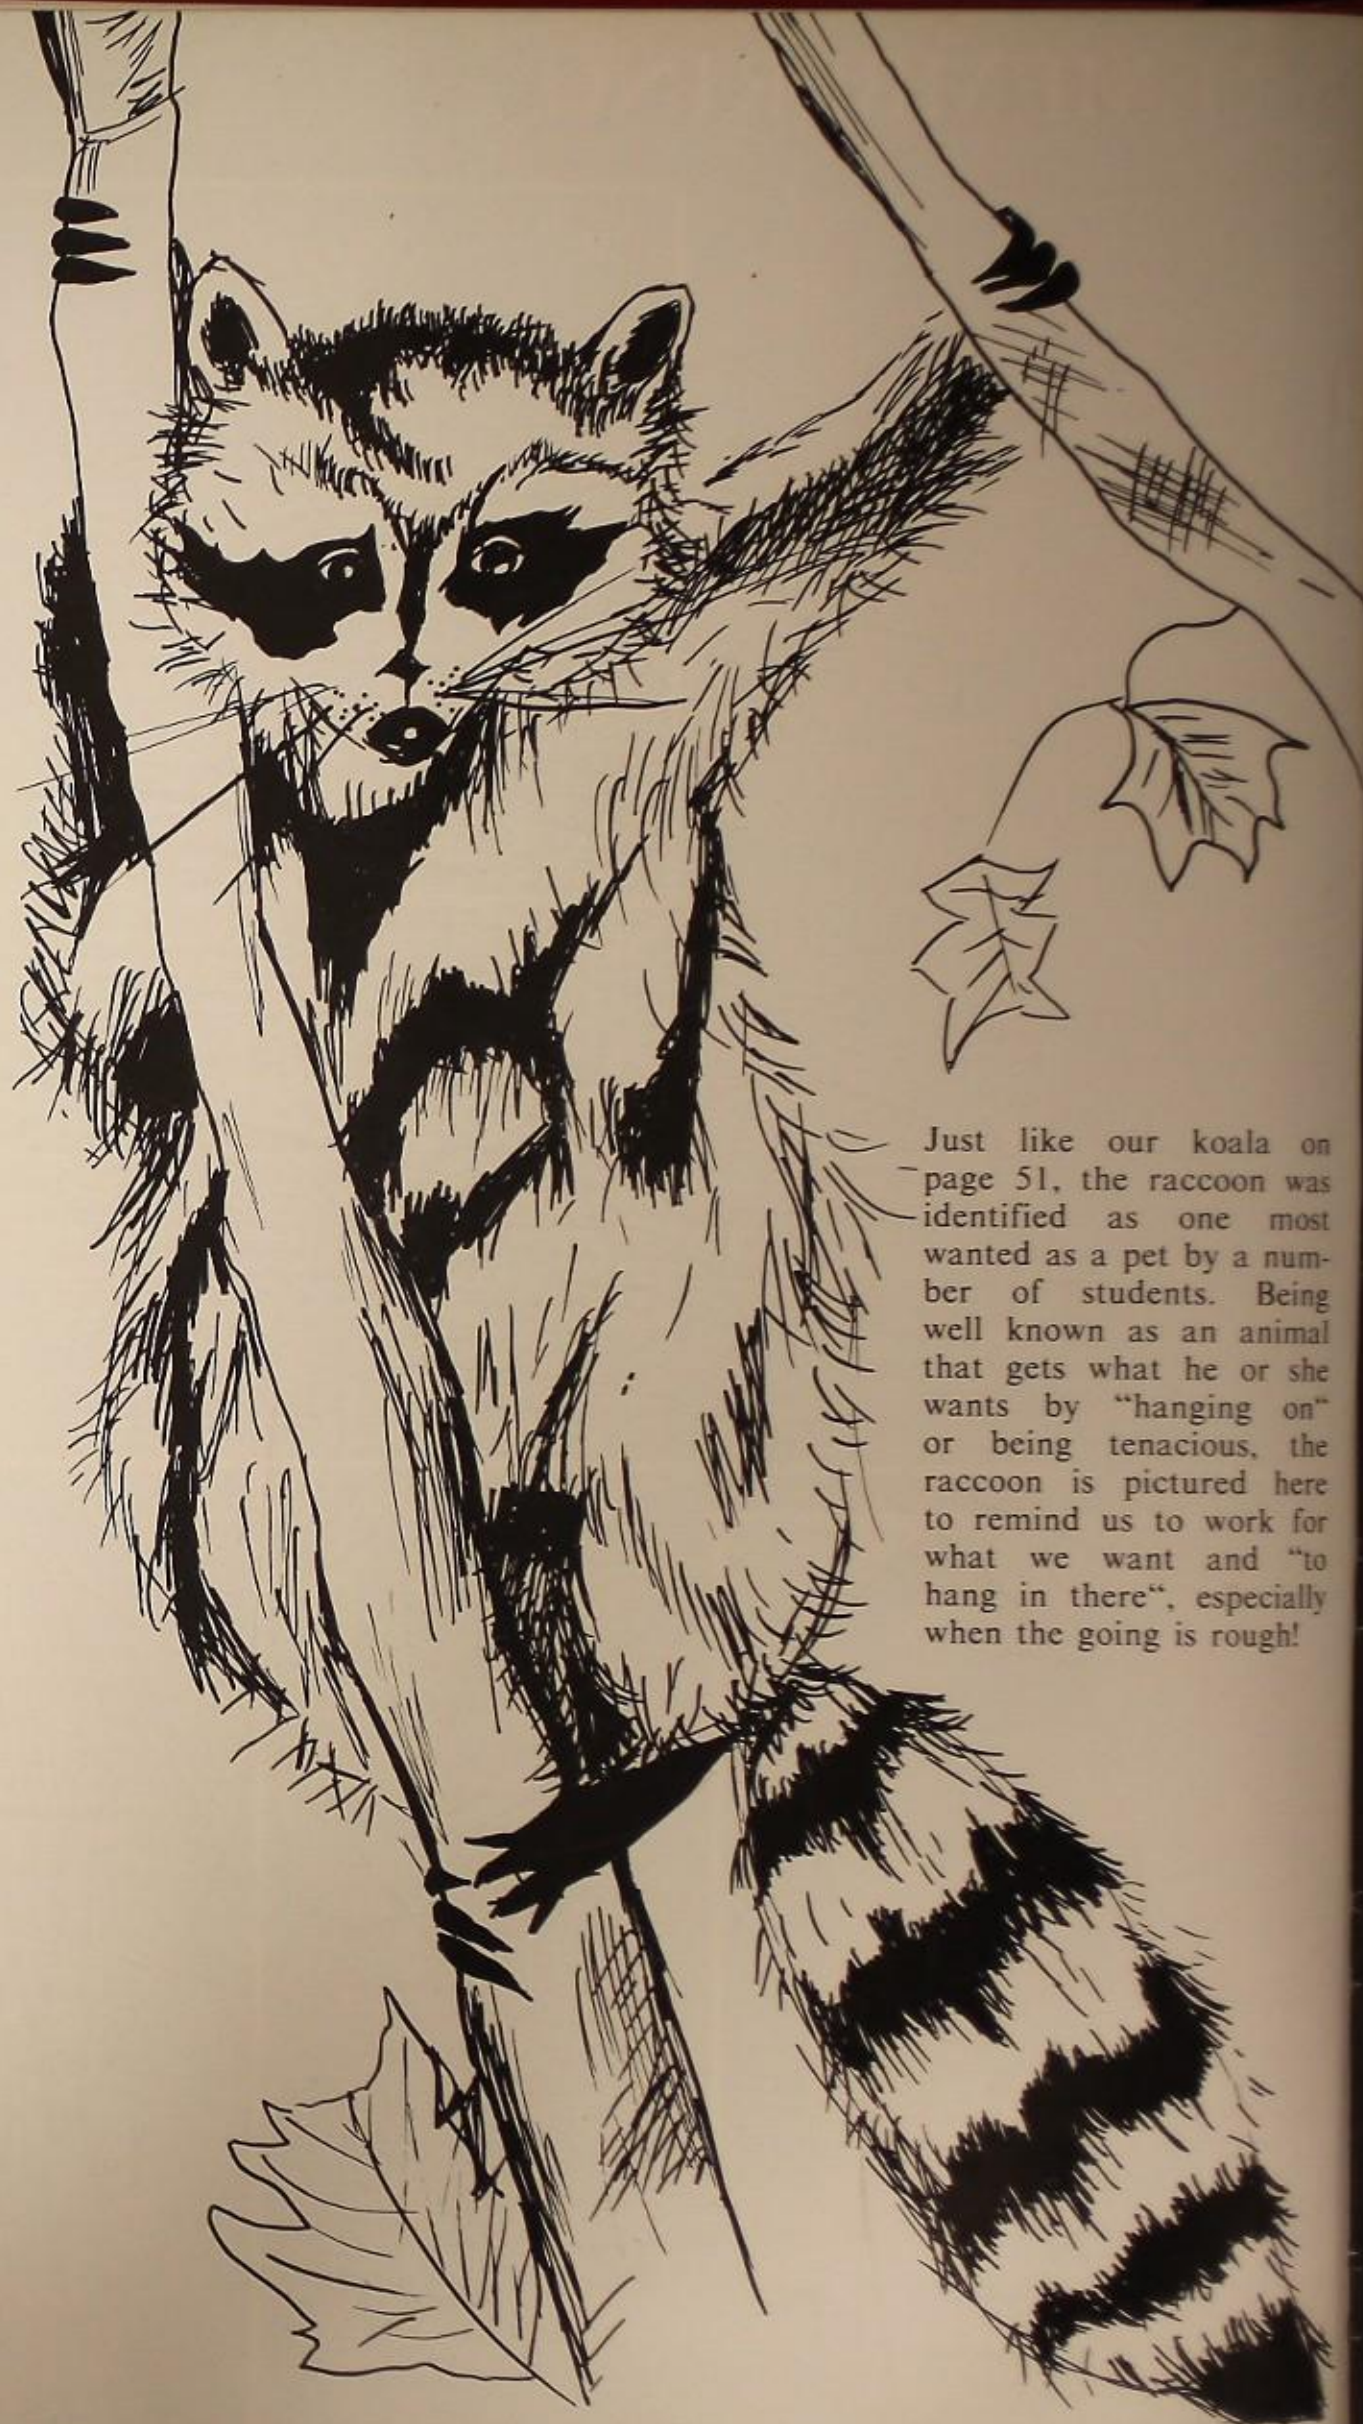

'After I heard the news,
I thought of the way it was
and I shed a single tear.
I saw his face pictured in my mind,
Laughing and smiling,
the way he always did,
and I shed a single tear.

And then I thought of his last request,
his only request,
"Think of me the way I was,
Not sick and lying in bed."
And I remembered what he said,
"It's a far better place I'll be in."
And I smiled,
as I shed a single tear
for my friend.'

Peter would have graduated this year and we would like to remember him by quoting the above which appeared in the 1975 TAWASENTHAN, a remembrance of him.

Just like our koala on page 51, the raccoon was identified as one most wanted as a pet by a number of students. Being well known as an animal that gets what he or she wants by "hanging on" or being tenacious, the raccoon is pictured here to remind us to work for what we want and "to hang in there", especially when the going is rough!

The Varden Portrait.

For some people, a diploma is not enough.

Some people feel that there should be more to graduation. More than just a diploma. A timeless commemorative of your graduation is the Varden portrait.

Your Varden portrait will speak with distinction. For over 30 years, the name Varden has meant the ultimate in fine portraiture. When you graduate, don't settle for less.

VP Sales and 2nd for top sales with $850. She received the Achiever's Award and had 100% attendance.

During 11th grade, Jan was elected president of TIPA IV, received the Achiever's Award, Jr. Exec. Award, Executive Award, and again had perfect attendance. Her company was Company of the Year in the Capital District.

This year, Jan outdid herself and a number of other members by winning Best Annual Report Contest. She again received all the above mentioned awards; in addition, she was voted Outstanding VP, Personnel, and won a trip to Indiana for the annual convention.

Asked how she regards JA, Jan stated that it was the most exciting organization she has ever been in and would have joined again if offered the opportunity. She will continue with JA in an assisting capacity.

JOE ARNOLD never started a game during his first two years of football; he was always smaller than everyone else. Having injured his hand during the off-season of his sophomore year prevented him from making varsity and from lifting. He joined late in his junior year to make him eligible for varsity during his senior year.

Following that year, he prepared for varsity and won a starting position in his senior year. As he had hoped, he started in the first game — but found this goal not so desirable. He was injured in the third quarter — in a block some players fell on the back of his left leg. He missed the rest of the season but had a great deal of satisfaction in knowing he had achieved a goal — to be a starter in his favorite sport.

Many other players in different sports were injured during the year. In each case, the individuals worked hard to overcome the disappointment as well as the injury — and won!

Tim Maloney, Peg Mastrianni, and Cheryl Harding enjoy the semi-formal. Tim is celebrating his fame as 2nd overall in a Special Olympics held at Colorado's Key Stone and Coper Mountain ski areas.

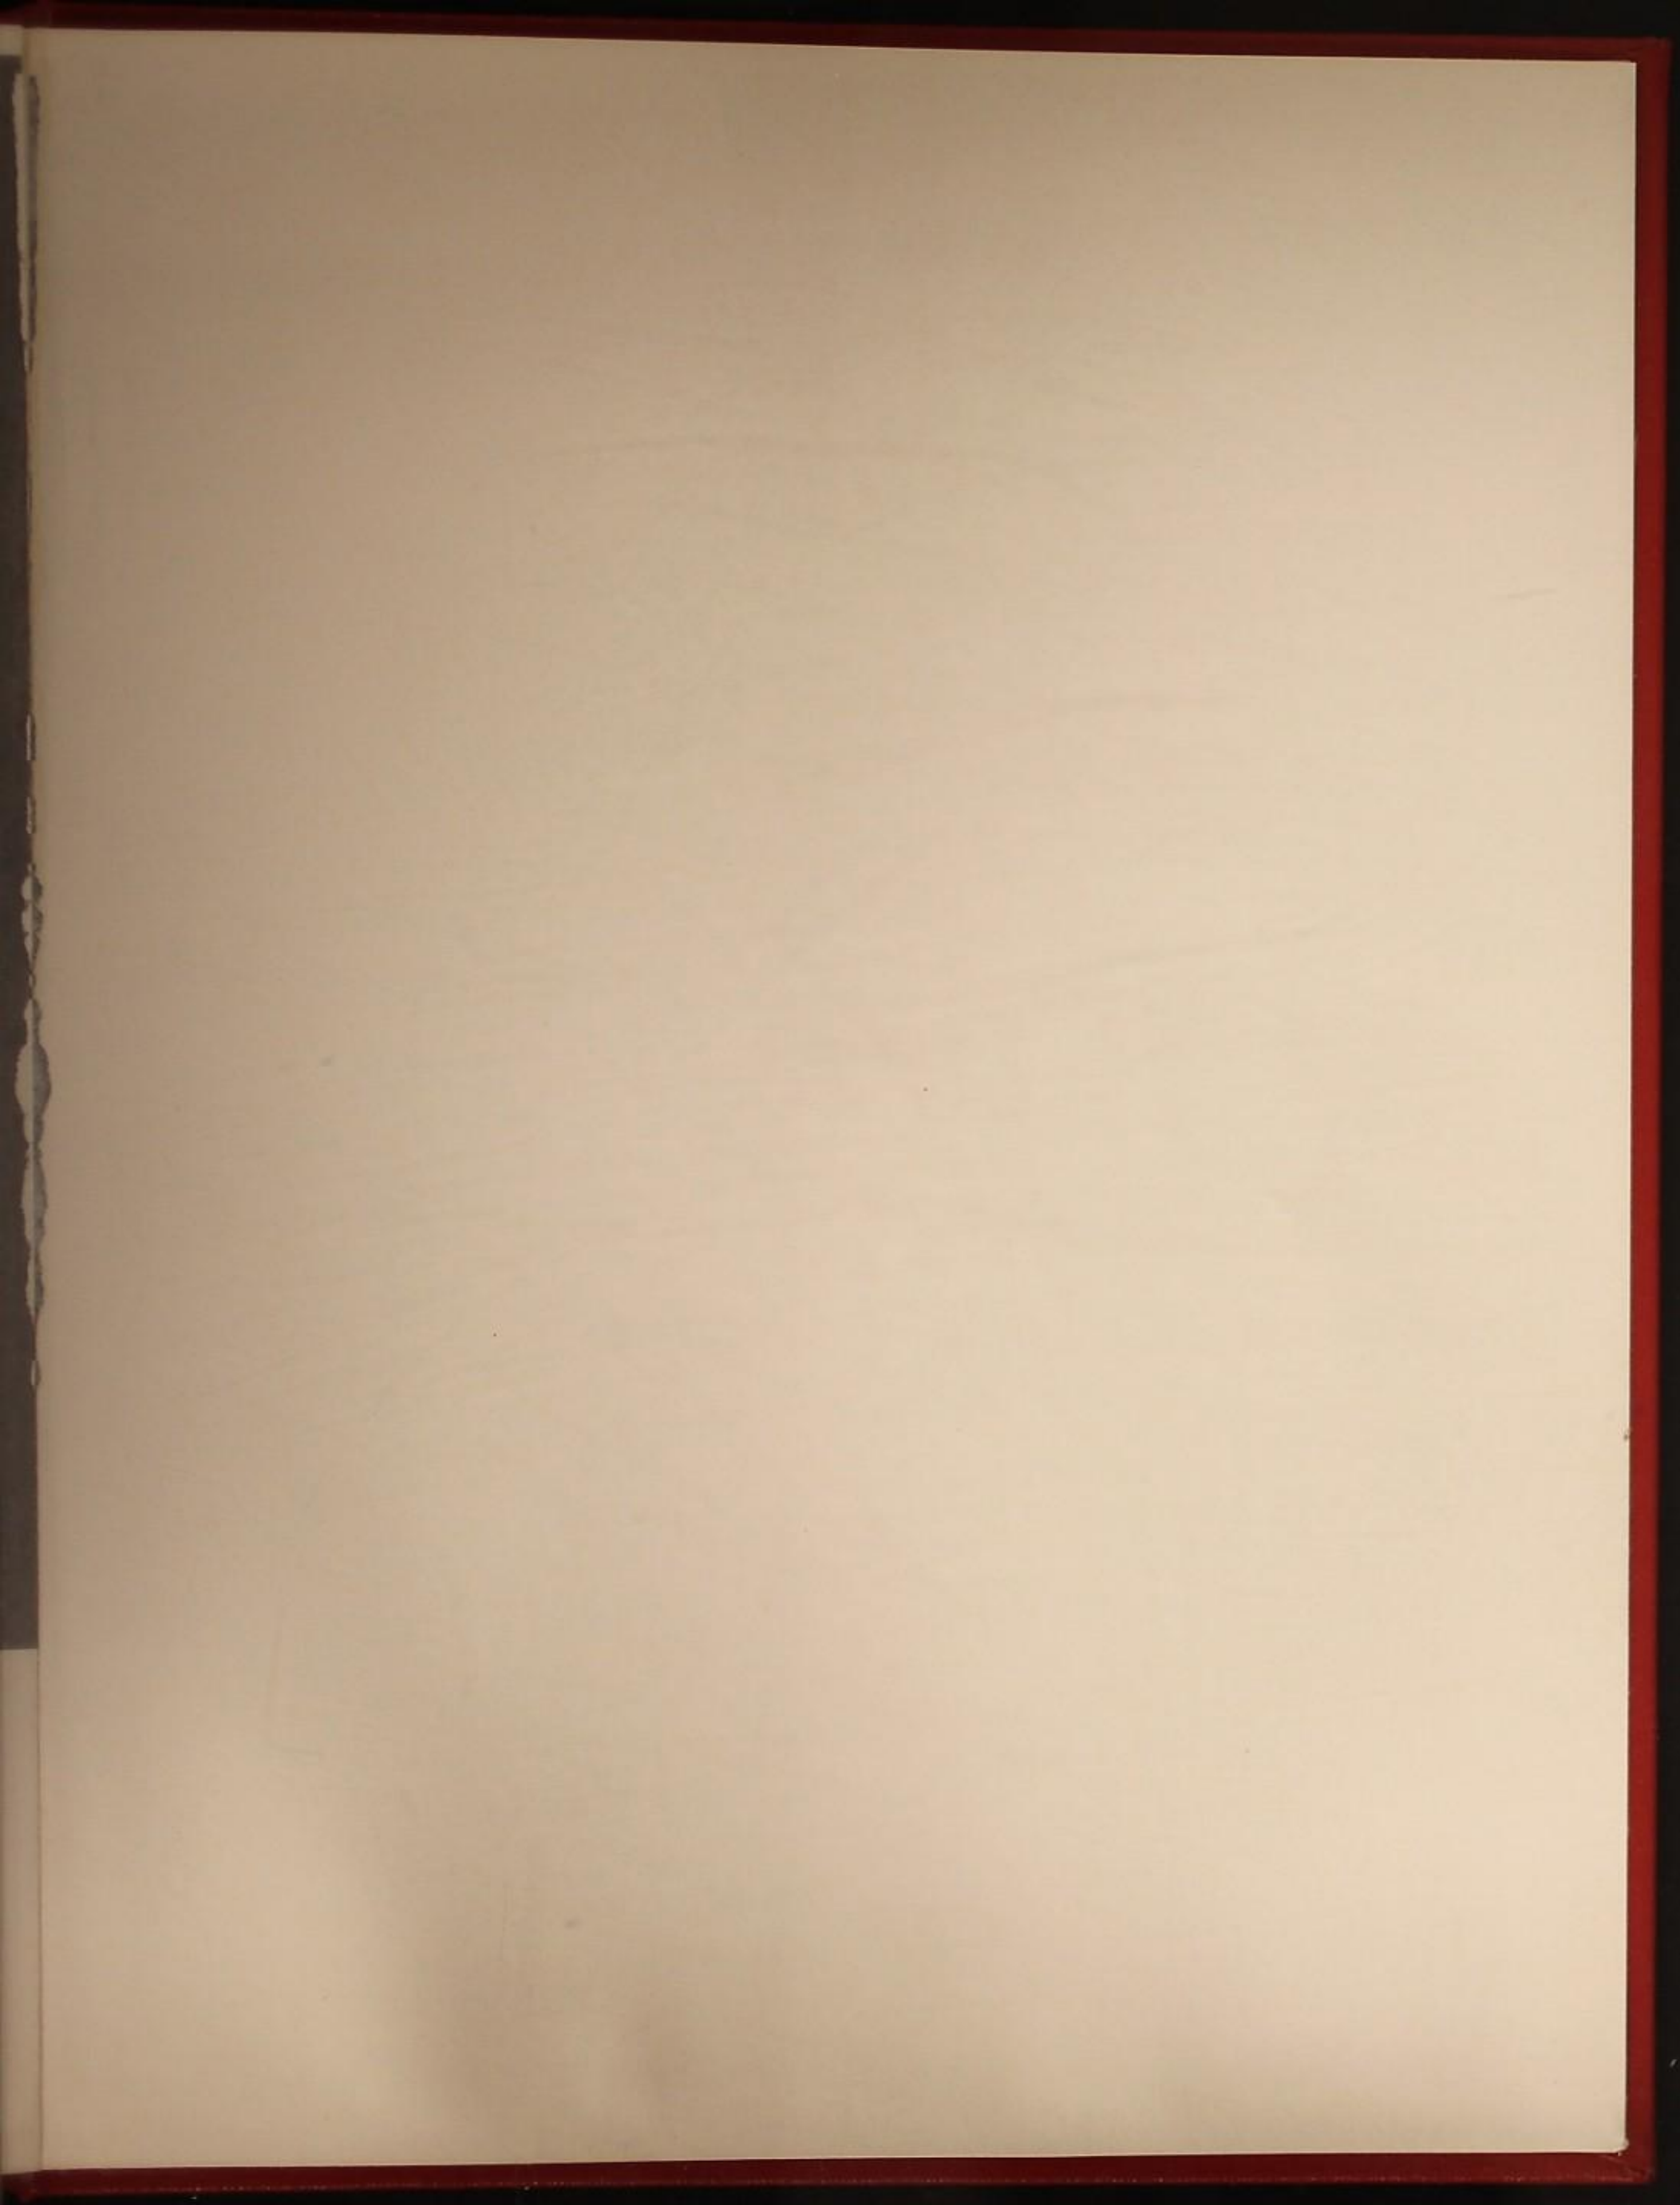

He has been skiing since he was 6. He has skied for GCHS ski team, Eastern US Ski Association, and the Willard Mountain ski team. He will travel to France in 1979 to compete in "World Deaf Olympics."

Hang In There—Some day this will be the "LIBRARY"!

"One nation with Liberty and Justice for all!" The flag, hanging on its pole, should remind us all of the great country in which we live, the advantages we have, the great heritage provided us. Our ancestors worked hard to make this country a place to be proud of. We must continue, for we are the generation our fathers rely upon, as we will rely upon those who follow us, to carry on the responsibility. We must not shirk our duty — we must "Hang In There" and do our best, always!
